

The Kingston Daily Freeman.

VOL. XLVIII—No. 193.

CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 3, 1919.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE RECORD A HISTORY OF CITY'S PROGRESS

Secretary Hudson Gives Outline of Things Done in Past Four Months and Those Contemplated For Civic Betterment.

"The Chamber of Commerce more than any other organization in the city," said Secretary Hudson this morning, "is obligated to pursue a definite plan of work which can be and is checked up with the results accomplished."

"Its activities have been reported from day to day, but I want now to make several brief statements which will give a clearer idea of the development of the Chamber's policy, of the things which have been definitely accomplished in the last few months, of things toward which very substantial progress has been made, and of some matters of vital importance to Kingston of which the foundations are now being laid." The resume referred to follows:

The changes in the world's thought and action within the last nine months, which have produced like changes in Kingston's thought and action, have been so vast that it is almost impossible to realize that a scant seven months ago we were looking forward to 1919 as a year in which all America's energies would be focused on the march toward Berlin.

So-called non-essential industries were preparing to surrender all or at least a part of their working force, retail and wholesale business was concerned chiefly with compliance with ever increasing governmental regulations and restrictions, permanent municipal and state improvements were indefinitely postponed, and normal civic activities and betterment was superseded by the devotion of all energy to the prosecution of the war.

Now we are thinking again in terms of new industries, new bridges, crossing elimination, retail and wholesale trade expansion, development of our wonderful resources as a summer place, Community Chorus, fire prevention, city loyalty, faith and vision, resumption of building—of everything, which goes into the making of a larger and better city.

Organizations, today, are rightly judged by the speed, efficiency, vision and earnestness with which they have faced the new conditions and new problems, while still remembering the obligations which have grown directly out of the war. They have succeeded in meeting new conditions pretty much in terms of the efficiency with which they faced war problems.

The War Work First policy of the Chamber of Commerce which turned the energies of the Chamber for three weeks to management of public and co-operation in the general administrative management of the War Chest campaign and for a like period to the Red Cross Roll Call, and which led to our activity in connection with the employment, business and industrial problems of the war, helped to create a fund of energy ready to be applied to the problems of peace and reconstruction.

The annual reports of the president and secretary made in January told of the war work and of preparations for meeting new issues. In the four months since those reports were made, the Chamber of Commerce has been very busy and is able today to show a record of substantial achievement which is worth while and which entitles it to confidence in the carrying out of the things vital to the development of Kingston which it is now undertaking.

The things which stand out in the records of these four months are: Industrial work for securing new factories.

Dress Up Week.

The winning of three shipping cars for war freight.

The establishment of Kingston's new Community Chorus.

The observance of Fire Prevention Day.

The inauguration of a publicity campaign to stimulate building.

The bringing to Kingston of Dean Johnson, Mr. Wilson of the State Department of Education and Major General O'Han.

The keeping of the Rondout Bridge matter constantly before the highway commissioner.

The working out by the cooperation of the City Government and the Chamber of a practical and desirable plan for the elimination of the Broadway crossing and the pressing negotiations with respect to the adoption of this plan to a point where early action by the Public Service Commission may be reasonably anticipated.

Other important things have been done and still others are in process; but these, perhaps, stand out.

We plan in brief statements to give a further account of them singly and in their relations to each other and to the permanent policy of the Chamber. The first statement will have to do with our factory location work which has taken more of our time and energy than any other but which we have given little publication and little publicity to this work.

The business of the Chamber of Commerce is to gather together all the energy of all the people who care for the future of Kingston and to apply that energy efficiently so that things about and to serve Kingston both larger and better, than there ever was in Kingston.

The Chamber of Commerce is more retail and wholesale trade, much more than a business organization, which is now a good city cooperative action to build and develop to work to play and to enjoy the city in every way second best, may go on to the greater and better development to which our systematic action.

COMMUNITY SING AT CITY HALL

Crystal Brown, the great Y. M. C. A. worker, who organized community singing in the training camps during the war, will be present tonight at the first open air sing of the Community Chorus, which will be held in City Hall Park. Seats will be provided for 1,000 and every one is invited to turn out and sing. The Community Chorus will start at 7:45 o'clock. It is expected that a lantern will also be used to throw the words of the songs to be sung on a screen.

The band concert will precede the sing, starting at 7:30 o'clock, and the sing starts at 7:45.

One thousand copies of the song booklet used in camps will be distributed gratis. The committee wants at least 2,000 present and asks that everybody turn out. There will be lots of space for parking automobiles on Broadway.

The Kingston Gas & Electric Company put up several strings of lights in City Hall Park this morning so that there will be plenty of light to see by.

NOW 42 INMATES IN CITY HOME

The regular monthly meeting of the Charity Commissioners was held Monday evening in the city hall, but only routine matters were disposed of and bills ordered paid. President Waterbury presided, with Commissioners: Fischer, Osterhout, Davis and Lang present.

It has been necessary to make some repairs to the City Home, and the roof on the institution which had been leaking has been repaired. Superintendent Edmonston and his wife were authorized to attend the state convention of superintendents of the poor to be held this summer on Long Island.

The report of Superintendent Edmonston showed that at the present time there are forty-two inmates at the City Home.

Secretary's Report.

Superintendent Edmonston, secretary of the board, submitted the following reports, which were adopted and filed:

Balance in bank May 6, $2,748.88; deposited with city treasurer by superintendent May 31, $253.12; $3,001.70. Bills to be audited this date, $2,950.17; balance, $71.53. There is about $14,900 still due the board from the city treasurer.

There are 42 inmates in the City Home, of which 22 are male and 20 female.

The Kingston City Hospital report showed 9 cases, with 112 days' treatment.

Outdoor Relief.

Groceries and provisions given out from the City Home during May by wards, follow: First ward, $8.43; Third ward, $16.86; Fourth ward, $17.23; Sixth ward, $22.92; Seventh ward, $10.06; Tenth ward, $8.26; Eleventh ward, $8.43; Twelfth ward, $12.05; Thirteenth ward, $11.95; Port Ewen, $5.19; total, $120.49.

Provisions given for work: Third ward, $7.55. Meats given: Third ward, $6.50.

Coal given out by wards: Third ward, $5.20; Fourth ward, $10.14. Dr. Frederick Huhne reported 51 sick calls during May and Dr. W. D. Hasbrouck reported 16 sick calls during that month.

The board then adjourned.

unassured natural advantages and the initiative of our people so thoroughly demonstrated during the war enable us.

To do this the Chamber must pursue a well-rounded and inclusive plan of work so that business and industry which will serve our civic development, and our civic progress will be brought about by direct negotiations for bringing new factories and with special trade expansion plans, bring new factories here and develop our industrial trade.

The past four months have seen for the future of Kingston and to serve Kingston both larger and better, than there ever was in Kingston.

The Chamber of Commerce is more retail and wholesale trade, much more than a business organization, which is now a good city cooperative action to build and develop to work to play and to enjoy the city in every way second best, may go on to the greater and better development to which our systematic action.

CRIMINAL CASES GO OVER TERM

On June 9 Remainder of Calendars Will Be Taken Up In County Court—Moore Manslaughter Case Put Over—Rock To Stay In Jail 3 Months Longer.

County Court, after being in session about half an hour Monday afternoon, took a recess until Monday afternoon, June 9, at 2 o'clock. Judge Fowler, before listening to jurors who desired to be excused had the civil calendar called to ascertain if there were any cases likely to be tried.

On the call of the calendar, No. 1, Hiram Bovee against Calvin Short, an action to recover commissions due growing out of a number of real estate transactions, was announced as ready for trial. Charles W. Walton for plaintiff; William H. Grogan for defendant.

No. 2, Morris H. Frooks against Hudson River Orchards Co., an action to recover damages for breach of contract, was held open to see whether Byron L. Davis, attorney of record for plaintiff, would consent to the court granting another order to vacate a judgment in $1,000 taken by default and if he would do so the defendant would consent that the case go over the term.

Robert Howard, appeared for Mr. Davis and asked that the case be sent over the term, saying he represented Mr. Davis who requested the case be sent over as S. L. Frooks, who was counsel for plaintiff, was in war service and was unable to be present to try the case.

George F. Kaufman, attorney for defendant, company, either wanted the case tried or the judgment which stands as a security vacated, as the company is responsible and does not want the judgment standing against it. Judge Fowler said that unless Mr. Davis would come and try the case himself he would grant the order to vacate the judgment and send the case over until next fall.

No. 3, B. & F. Mfg. Co. against Joseph S. Pessenar, an action on a promissory note, was held open. N. H. Pessenar for plaintiff; Brinnier, Canfield and Brinnier for defendant.

No. 4, Abram Pasch against William A. Warren, an action for damages was reserved. Brinnier, Canfield and Brinnier for plaintiff; Charles W. Walton for defendant.

No. 5, N. D. J. Murphy against Metropolitan Insurance Company, an action on contract, went over the term, a motion pending in the case.

Frank O'Reilly, for plaintiff; Brinnier, Canfield & Brinnier for defendant.

No. 6, Joseph H. Frooks against George W. Chichester, an action to recover damages, was marked for trial. Van Elten & Cook for plaintiff; George F. Kaufman for defendant.

This left Nos. 1 and 6 ready for trial, and possibly No. 3. When all jurors' excuses were heard and those not responding were called up, there were 24 left on the panel.

The criminal calendar was then called and the case of The People against Sig. D'Amico, indicted for burglary at Ellenville, was reported to be ready for trial by District Attorney Traver, and John M. Cashin, attorney for defendant.

Patrick Rock, indicted for robbery in having taken about $3 from a youth named Long on Railroad avenue last January, whom he told he was Sergeant Hanley and would arrest him unless he gave him the money, changed through his attorney, John M. Cashin, his former plea of not guilty to robbery in the third degree to assault in the third degree. Mr. Cashin pleaded strongly for leniency for the prisoner, saying that he had been a volunteer soldier and did good service as such for 18 months and had received an honorable discharge. The Long boy was an irresponsible person, and had been in trouble and in fact had been arrested since himself. Rock when not drinking was a working man, and his mother a poor working woman. He had already been in jail three months. District Attorney Traver stated that what Mr. Cashin had said was in the main true, but the grand jury had found that force had been used by Rock in taking the money and therefore found the indictment as charged. Judge Fowler said that the fact that Rock had served with honor for his country as a soldier is no excuse for his committing the act charged. However, it would be taken into consideration in fixing the sentence, as would also the fact that he had already been in jail for three months. The sentence of the court was three months more in jail.

The following criminal cases were put over the term: John Baier, burglar, in jail. Joseph Moore, manslaughter, as witness necessary were in army service. Morris D. Reiner, who moved it over said it would not be a good time now to try a man with such a name. This is a case of long standing. Fannie Courtman, receiving stolen goods, Augustus Conner, taking a mule in the town of Rochester. John Camarillo, residing an officer in the town of Saucierles, a year ago in setting a dog after him.

The bail bond against Harry T. Hlawinski, arrested to keep the peace, was continued, by request of complainant.

Court then ordered a recess until Monday afternoon, June 9, at 2 o'clock. When the case of The People against W. A. Mow was taken up for trial, the civil cases, Nos. 1 and 6 to be taken up next.

Naturalization Court Today.

Supreme Court Justice Hasbrouck is holding naturalization court in the court house this afternoon.

MAYOR WELCOMES SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY

State Convention Officially Opened With Over 200 Delegates Present—Public Excluded—Elected Officers Wednesday.

The state council of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty was officially opened in Pythian Hall this morning.

Over 200 delegates from all parts of New York state are present. A number were in this city last night when a caucus was held in preparation for the election of officers. The sessions of the convention held today and tomorrow will be closed to the public inasmuch as the business to be transacted will concern only members of the council. Late this afternoon officers will be nominated to be followed by the election tomorrow morning.

The following letter of welcome was sent to the council this morning by Mayor Palmer Canfield, Jr.:

Kingston, N. Y., June 3rd, 1919. Mrs. Nettie E. Latham, State Councilor, and officers of delegates to the New York State Council, Sons and Daughters of Liberty.

Greetings from the City of Kingston.

The City of Kingston extends to you a most cordial and sincere welcome.

Welcome you are because you have honored Kingston by your selection to hold your twenty-fifth annual session here.

Doubly welcome you are because of the lofty principles of your order. They must necessarily awaken lofty ideals in the hearts and minds of all your members. An organization with the high objects and purposes such as yours, enables the minds of all who come in contact with it, and yields a great upward influence in the world at a time when it is much needed. Your order has survived the test of its worth. As it has guided many with fidelity, patriotism and integrity, may it continue with its guiding enlightenment. May your faith in your work continue without any lessening of its vigor and may your courage continue to overcome all obstacles to a continuing growth in membership and results to be accomplished, may the dimmest years to come be better and rosier for your order than the brightest year of the past.

The gates of the city swing wide to let you in. The city thrice welcomes you and extends to you its best wishes.

Respectfully, PALMER CANFIELD, Jr., Mayor.

This is the second time that Kingston has been honored by having the State Council of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty meet here. The first convention here was about three years ago. The Sons and Daughters of Liberty is a growing organization with 125 councils in the state at the present time. The officers of the state council are: State Councilor, Nettie E. Latham, Woodmere, L. I. state vice councilor, Mrs. Alice Mitchell, Syracuse; ex-state councilor, Mrs. Lottie M. Reitz, Jr., New York city; state secretary, Mrs. Lottie A. McClure, Jamaica; state treasurer, Mrs. May Bodkin, Bohm, Richmond Hill.

Margaret Brower Bester.

Margaret Brower of 65 Chichester street, Jamaica, L. I., a delegate on her way to attend the State Council of the Daughters of Liberty, which opened its sessions at Pythian Hall, Wall street, this city, Monday evening was conveyed from the Hudson River day line steamer to the City of Kingston Hospital, in the afternoon by the city ambulance. She was taken very ill while on the trip up the river. Her condition was somewhat improved today.

A Remarkable Apple Tree.

J. Lord of 64 Emerick street is the owner of a remarkable apple tree. The tree is but two feet in height from the ground to the top-most branch and yet it holds four apples, perfectly formed and as far advanced in growth as those of similar variety on larger trees. Four branches radiate from the trunk.

Mr. Lord bought the little tree at a five and ten cent store last spring and planted it at once. It had a tag on it marked "Baldwin."

Presbyterian Basket Picnic.

All members of the Woman's New Era League of the Elmendorf Street Presbyterian Church, with their families, are invited to a basket picnic to be held at Forsyth Park, tomorrow, Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. This will be the last meeting of the League for this season.

For Church Committees.

The committee appointed by the churches in opposition to Sunday movies and baseball where an admission is charged is requested to meet at the city hall tonight at 7:45. The ministers of the churches and others interested are invited to be present.

Home Bureau Needs Typewriter.

The Ulster County Home Bureau needs a typewriter and needs it badly. Who will loan, donate, or sell a small cost typewriter. The bureau's office is at 43 Crown street. Telephone 1637-J.

DRILL SUSPENDED FOR SUMMER

An order has been received by the local officers from the offices of the supervisor of boys' drills that all drills will be suspended until next September. This includes the employed boys and the High School boys. Any subsequent order will be published in the local papers.

MUST HAVE VEHICLE LIGHTS

Sheriff Smith has received a letter from the secretary of state instructing him to enforce rigidly the automobile law and see that every violator is arrested, especially those who violate the section relating to the proper lighting of not only autos but wagons. Sheriff Smith has notified every one of the deputy sheriffs in the county to get busy, and Sergeant Sheehan, of the state troopers, has done likewise to the troopers who patrol Ulster county, and he will see that the law is enforced. There will be no partiality shown, as if the sheriff fails to carry out the provisions of the law he is liable to have charges referred against him for neglect of duty, and if proven he removed by Governor Smith.

ICE SHORTAGE HITS NEW YORK

Unexpected Hot Wave Caught Dealers Short of Ice—Hurrying Barges Upriver to Load—All Kingston Sweltering Today—66 in Shade.

All Kingston sweltered in its shirt sleeves in the hottest day of the season. At noon thermometers hanging in the shade down town registered 96 degrees. What it registered in the sun it was too hot to find out, but undoubtedly the thermometer would have pointed to over 100 degrees.

While today was the hottest so far this season, last night was also the warmest so far experienced, although indications point to it being even hotter tonight.

The unexpected hot spell caught the retail ice dealers in New York city short. They had not expected a warm spell until later in the month, and for that reason the trade was being amply taken care of with artificial ice.

The rise in the temperature caused a big demand, which it has not been found possible to fill. Today a number of empty barges were hurried out of New York by special towage destined for ice houses along the Hudson river. The barges will be loaded and towed to New York.

That the day was hot was easily seen by the appearance of the men on the streets. Coats were thrown off, and left in the office and there were more shirt sleeves visible than coat sleeves. Collars and ties were also discarded for the day.

While the men were ridding themselves of superfluous garments, some women were seen wearing their light weight fur neck pieces.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The Rose-Gorman-Rose employees will hold their victory dance tonight at Kingston Point pavilion.

The trolley road was busy today making repairs to the section of track where trolley cars left the rails on Sunday and Monday.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Fair Street Reformed Church will meet in the Sunday School room, on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Church of the Comforter will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church.

A new awning has been erected on the store of Costello & Dugan, Wall street, to take the place of that which burned last week. The work was done by W. C. Johnston.

The Ladies Aid Society of Trinity M. E. Church will hold its regular meeting in the chapel Wednesday afternoon. This will be the last meeting until September and a good attendance is expected.

The Philanthropic Class of the Waris Street Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. William Van Valk, 38 West O'Reilly street, this evening. All members of the class are invited to be present.

PENNSYLVANIA CENTER OF NATION-WIDE BOMB PLOT

Widely Scattered Attempts Made On Lives of Prominent Men In Last 24 Hours Believed To Be Directed By Phila. Terrorists—Gov't. Agencies All Working On Case.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, June 3.—Department of Justice agents today were centering upon Pennsylvania officers to run down the perpetrators of the greatest plot in history of nation.

With the home of Attorney General Palmer, himself a Pennsylvanian, shattered by a bomb that blew the perpetrator to bits and showered the cabinet member with broken glass, and with other explosions having occurred in Ohio, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, investigators today were in possession of a series of clues that caused them to believe the Keystone State might be the headquarters of the latest terrorist movement.

Although there has been no solution of the mystery of the May day plot, when a score of bombs were placed in the New York post office and destined for prominent men in all sections, it is known that a Philadelphia man, said to live in Chestnut street was under suspicion. And it has been established, almost beyond doubt, that the man, who was killed by the explosion of his own bomb at the Palmer residence, boarded a train at Philadelphia last night.

This developed today, when the metropolitan police found a conductor's slip near a portion of the victim's body. The conductor was located and he identified the slip as having been issued by him to a passenger boarding the train at that place and at that hour.

Hoist By Own Petard.

The terrorist, who planted the bomb at the home of the attorney general was himself blown to pieces. Fifty feet away from the official residence was found the remains of a limb and other sections of a body.

The attorney general was about to retire, when the explosion occurred and only shortly before had left the place, where the bomb had been planted. As it was, the force of the explosion broke windows and shattered the attorney general with glass. That the bomb was of a deadly type was shown today by the fact that the entire facade of the Palmer residence had been torn away, practically every window shattered and doors torn from their hinges, by the explosion. From the bloody remains of the bomb thrower, it was judged that he was a swarthy man with dark hair and slender build. He wore a collar of a well known make with a Chinese laundry mark.

The text of the "Red" Dodger, headed plain words, which was found with the remains of the Palmer victim and which was identical with the one found near the bombed home of Judge Albert F. Haden, of Roxbury, Mass., follows in part:

A time has come, when the social question's solution can be delayed no longer, class war is on and cannot cease but with a victory for the proletariat.

The challenge is an old one, democratic lords. We have been dreaming of freedom, we have talked of liberty, we have aspired to a better world, and you failed us, you clubbed us, you deported us, you murdered us whenever you could. It is history of yesterday that your gunmen were shooting and murdering unarmed masses by the wholesale; it has been the history of every Cleveland, June 3.—A round up Red suspects was under way today, caused by the unsuccessful attempt to kill Mayor Davis last night by a bomb explosion. A Ford automobile may prove a valuable clue in running down the Cleveland agents of the national anarchists. Police learned today that two men seen running from the neighborhood of the Davis home last night jumped on the running board of a Ford car at the corner of Warner road and Broadway and sped off in the direction of Bedford. Police were seeking two suspects.

Boston, June 3.—Vigorous police search was made today for the persons who at midnight placed bombs that tore holes in the homes of Representative Powers and Justice Albert Haden. Polly Powers, daughter of the representative, was cut about the face by glass as she slept in her bed. Samuel Powers, 2nd, aged one and one-half years, slept peacefully during the explosion on the side of the house where the bomb was planted. No one else was injured.

Red suspects were under way today, caused by the unsuccessful attempt to kill Mayor Davis last night by a bomb explosion. A Ford automobile may prove a valuable clue in running down the Cleveland agents of the national anarchists. Police learned today that two men seen running from the neighborhood of the Davis home last night jumped on the running board of a Ford car at the corner of Warner road and Broadway and sped off in the direction of Bedford. Police were seeking two suspects.

Private Edward J. Ross, the son of Mrs. Catherine Ross, has arrived safely from overseas, and is now at Camp Meade.

Worw has been received of the arrival from overseas service of First Class Private Robert R. Kerr, Co. B, 263rd Field Signal Corps. The company arrived at Philadelphia, Sunday and was sent to Camp Meade.

THE JOINERS.

News of Interest to Members of Fraternal Societies.

The following lodges hold regular meetings this evening:

C. S. Clay Lodge, No. 530, 1 O. O. F., in Pythian Hall.

Northern Rose Lodge, No. 24, at 103 Cornell street.

Ladies Auxiliary, No. 53, of Tappan Camp, No. 1, Sons of Veterans, at 435 Broadway.

Wickita Council, Degree of Pockahontas, at 5 Railroad avenue.

Kingston Lodge, No. 10, F. and A. M. in Masonic Hall, Wall street.

Women's Benevolent Association of the Maccabees, in Mechanics' Hall, Henry street.

Resident Social Mannercher, in Mannercher Hall, Strand.

Catherine M. Mooney, division president of the New York State Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, will make her official visit to Auxiliary No. 53 of Kingston, on Wednesday evening. All officers are asked to wear white.

William S. Farmer, grand master of Masons, state of New York, has appointed Charles S. Whitson, Saugerties, district deputy grand master for this Masonic district, which embraces Ulster and part of Greene county.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

SOCONY TRACTOR
OIL FOR PISTON RINGS

Tractor Performance is Governed by Lubrication

The service and power your tractor delivers—its performance—depends largely on lubrication—a gas-tight piston-to-cylinder seal—every bearing and moving part oil-cushioned against wear and running quietly.

Ordinary motor oils are not suitable because tractors work for hours at full load and develop an extra high operating heat—especially when kerosene is the fuel. They need a special oil.

SoCony Gas Engine Tractor Oil is the oil leading tractor manufacturers recommend. It retains its body and lubricating qualities at high cylinder heat. Coats valve mechanism, shafts and bearings with a protective film of pure lubricant. Cushions cylinders and piston rings against wear and maintains full compression. Gets all the usable power out of the fuel.

Keeps tractors powerful and fit the year round at the smallest cost for oil, fuel and repairs.

Polarine Gear Oil Polarine Transmission Oil Grease

For efficient tractor service and economical operation buy all your oils, greases and fuel under the SoCony sign.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF NEW YORK

Principal Offices

New York Albany Buffalo Boston

SOCONY TRACTOR OIL

RICHARD TAPPEN
100 Greenkill Ave.

Help Your Digestion

When acid-distressed, relieve the indigestion with

KI-MOIDS

Dissolve easily on tongue—as pleasant to take as candy. Keep your stomach sweet, try Ki-moids.

MADE BY SCOTT & BOWNE

MAKERS OF SCOTT'S EMULSION

KODAKS AND FILMS

Developing and Printing Outfits, Chemicals, Printing Papers, Eastman Plates, Developing Powders and Liquids.

Bring in your films and let us develop and print them. Twenty-four hour service. All work guaranteed.

Forsyth & Davis, Inc.

307 Wall St. Phone 708

Get More From Your Garden

You will get much more out of your garden if you protect it against bugs, worms and disease. The simple, easy way to do this is to spray with

Ryrox

"The Spray That Adds to Your Profit"

Ryrox kills bugs and worms, prevents disease and invigorates the plants. Ready for use by mixing with water. Our Ryrox Book gives complete garden and spraying information. Ask

CANFIELD, THE STRAY MAN,
Strand and Ferry Street,
KINGSTON, N. Y.

OPERATORS

Experienced on Shirt Making

May increase their earnings and obtain steady work by applying to

F. JACOBSON & SONS

Cor. Smith Ave. and Cornell St.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, June 2.—Memorial Day was quietly observed in the village. The surviving members of the G. A. R. met at the post rooms in the morning and marched to the cemeteries with flags and flowers to place upon their dead comrades' graves. The day was an ideal one, more beautiful could not have been desired. The G. A. R. men returned to Ward Post rooms, where a reunion was held and then upon invitation of Major Divine all repaired to the Mitchell House and enjoyed a good dinner, well served. Returning to the post rooms, the veterans enjoyed an hour or more at reminiscing.

Lake Shore Camp at Ulster Heights, "Cornelius and Rippert," proprietors, opened for the season on Memorial Day. A large number of people visited the famous resort during the day and a large number of young people from Ellenville and vicinity were there at the evening opening, when music and dancing were enjoyed and a general good social time.

There will be a public health meeting at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, June 3rd at 8 o'clock. Among the speakers will be Dr. F. W. Laidlaw, state sanitary supervisor, who will speak on "Rural Sanitation," Dr. George F. Wilklow, the township health inspector, "A Clean Town," and other speakers are to be present and talk along lines of public health.

There will be a guest meeting of the Musical Club Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The program will start promptly at 8:15. This program, Mrs. W. D. Cunningham in Renaissance of the Dance, is combined with The Folks Music program in charge of Mrs. Wilklow and Mrs. Ewing.

The people of Ellenville and vicinity are looking forward to a great treat. On Friday evening, Bishop Anderson is to be in the M. E. Church and deliver an address entitled, "The Call of America." Bishop Anderson is sure to be greeted by a large congregation and find warm welcome in Ellenville.

Grocer A. N. Rapp while riding a bicycle with a motor propeller, down Canal street Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, when nearly opposite Ulster Knife Works, by some unforeseen cause, was thrown head first over the handle bars to the ground, striking his head and rendering him unconscious. Several who witnessed the accident went at once to his rescue and he was taken to his home, doctors summoned and after some time regained consciousness. He was found to have sustained severe cuts and bruises about the head and at first it was feared his skull was fractured, but late Sunday night his condition was not as serious as at first thought and he was resting as well as could be expected. Mr. Rapp is the father of the late Dr. J. W. Rapp.

James Miller and wife of Cornwall spent Memorial Day and over Sunday with his father, E. E. Miller, on Canal street.

Congressman William E. Cleary and Mrs. Cleary, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dannemiller of Brooklyn and Mrs. Nicholas McCullah of Hastings spent several days in town, stopping at the Mitchell House. The three ladies are sisters, formerly the Misses Riley, residing on The Cape. Many Ellenville friends were glad to greet this party in town.

M. D. Sheridan of New York spent the week end at the Sheridan home on Canal street.

William J. Carver and family of East Orange, N. J., spent Memorial Day and until Sunday with Lionel Booth and family.

Floyd Smith, Mrs. Smith and two children were week end visitors of Mrs. Smith's brother, H. W. Coons and family on Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Matthews of Passaic, N. J., spent Memorial Day with Mrs. Matthews' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Porter.

Mrs. Frank Elliott of Weehawken Heights paid her annual visit to the cemetery and made a short visit with her cousin, Druggist Campbell and family on Canal street.

Mrs. S. G. Catlin of Bloomfield, N. J., is visiting her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Holmes.

Thomas B. Gerard of Middletown spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. J. J. Ryan, on Center street.

Mrs. John Morry and daughter of Brooklyn are visiting his sister, Mrs. Philip Clearwater, and other relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Hoornbeek have received word of the safe arrival of their son, Janzen K. Hoornbeek, from overseas and at Camp Dix. He will soon be home as also the other boys, Leslie J. Shurtz, Fred Carver and Vrooman Miller, who have seen long service overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex King and Master Richard of Otterville are visiting Mrs. King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Loving, on Circle avenue.

Aaron Clearwater of New York has been clearing a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Clearwater.

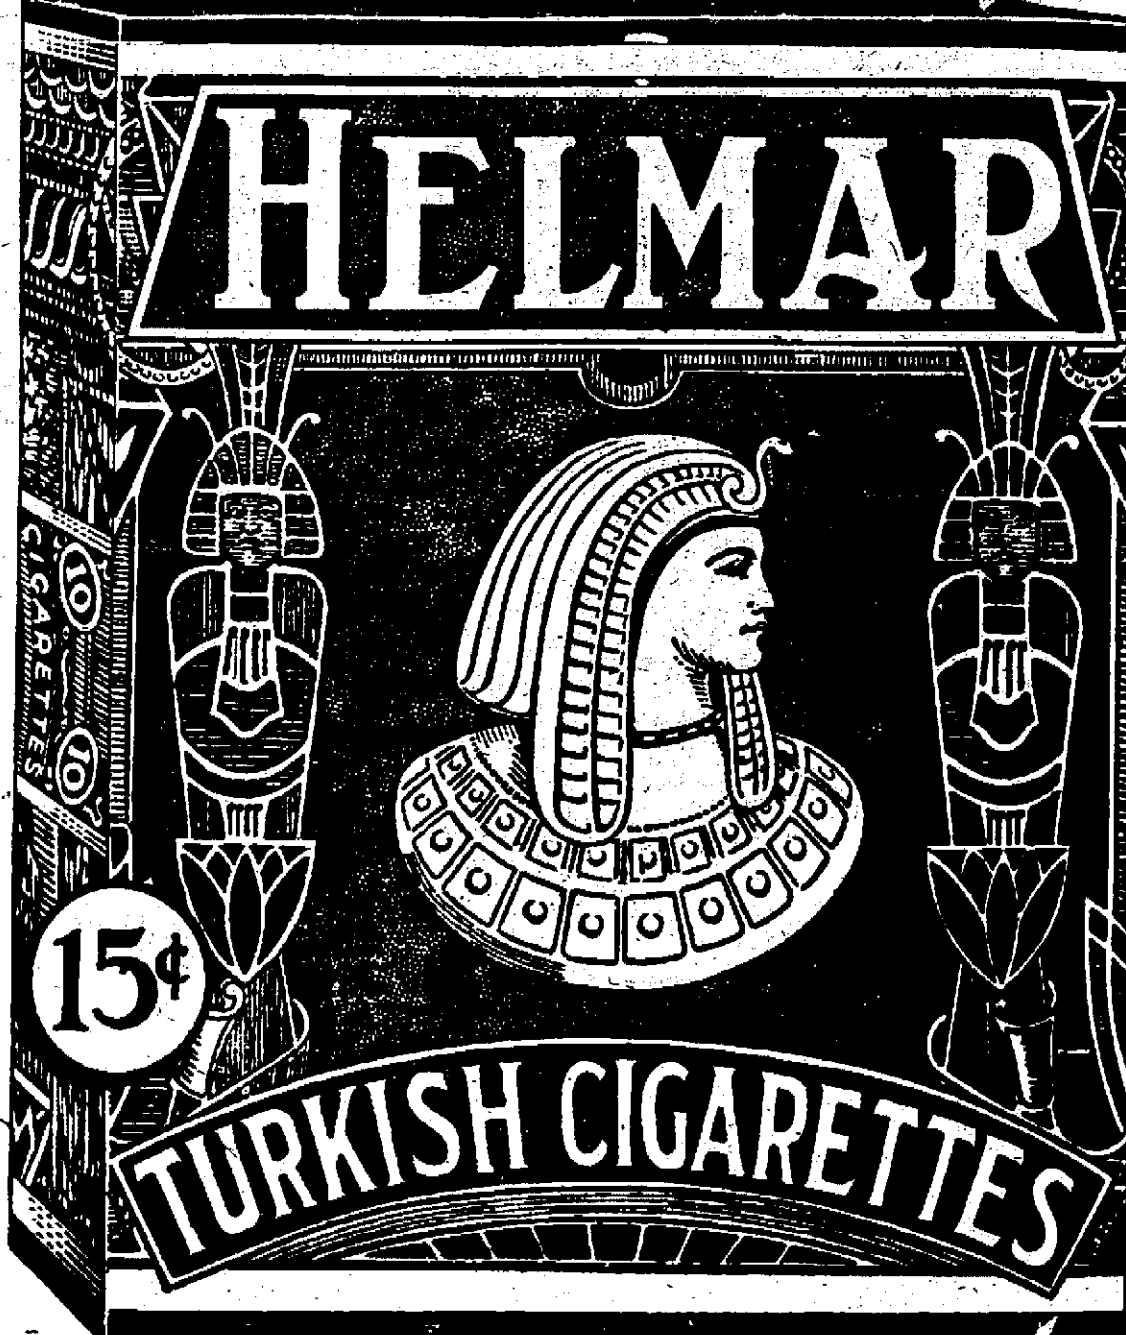

Mrs. Raymond Noyes of Walker Valley spent the week end with her husband, who has a position in the Wells garage and while in town rented apartments in the J. M. Hoornbeek house on Warren street, which they will occupy during June. (Edwin Hoar is the U. S. service still at Carlisle, Pa., is spending a ten days' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoar.

United States Senator.

Each United States Senator is elected for six years, unless he is chosen to fill the unexpired term of some senator who has died or resigned. On March 4 in every "odd year"—1919, etc.—the term of 32 senators expires; that is, one-third of the whole number. By this plan there is never an entirely new senate. Even if no members were re-elected, two-thirds of the membership would always consist of men who have had either two or four years' service.

100%
Pure
Turkish
Tobacco

Remember—

Quantity can never take the place of Quality.

Tobacco that is not Turkish can never take the place of 100% pure Turkish.

"Bundle" cigarettes are plentiful in quantity—Helmar cigarettes are superior in "Quality."

We gladly make the comparison.

Smargiros

Makers of the Helmar and Turkish and Egyptian Cigarettes in the World

Quality-Superb

ONE CENT A WORD ADVS. BRING RESULTS

NOTICE TO CREDITORS—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against John O'Reilly, late of the town of Shandaken, county of Ulster, deceased, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, John B. Scully, the executor of the estate of said deceased, at the office of my attorney, John W. Eckert, in the Ulster County Surrogate Bank Building, in the city of Kingston, in said county, on or before the first day of July, 1919.

Dated December 12th, 1918.
JOHN B. SCULLY,
Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John O'Reilly, deceased.

John W. Eckert, Attorney for Executor, Office and Post Office Address, Ulster County Surrogate Bank Building, Kingston, N. Y.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Theodore B. Longyear, late of the town of Shandaken, county of Ulster, deceased, intestate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, John B. Longyear, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, at the office of my attorney, John W. Eckert, in the Ulster County Surrogate Bank Building, in the city of Kingston, in said county, on or before the first day of July, 1919.

Dated December 12th, 1918.
THEODORE B. LONGYEAR,
Administrator of the goods, chattels and credits which were of Theodore B. Longyear, deceased.

John W. Eckert, Attorney for Administrator, Office and Post Office Address, Ulster County Surrogate Bank Building, Kingston, N. Y.

A Million Babies—and One Pair of Pink Cheeks

WHEN my doctor told me to give my baby Nestlé's Food because I couldn't nurse him, I said, "Have many babies been brought up on it?"

He smiled. "Right here in the United States" he said, "at this minute there are many thousands of babies keeping well and strong on Nestlé's. All over the world it's the same way—and that will give you some idea of how many babies have kept well on Nestlé's Food during the past fifty years."

And yet it wasn't all those millions of babies that convinced me. It was the pink cheeks of my own baby.

Nestlé's Milk Food is made out of pure milk, to which has been added just the right amount of cereal and of pure sugar. This is made into a white fluffy powder, which makes the curds of the milk easy to digest. You just add cold water, boil, and Nestlé's is pure milk in powder form that is already modified and does not require the further action of milk. Always pure and sweet, always uniform, and free from the dangers of home modification, Nestlé's has stood the test of three generations and has today the largest sale of any baby food in the world.

FREE! Enough Nestlé's for 12 feedings. Send the coupon!

NESTLÉ'S MILK FOOD

NESTLÉ'S FOOD COMPANY INC.
Dept. 105, 130 Williams St., N. Y. City.
Please send me free your book and trial package.

FEMALE HELP

Operators ON LADIES' WAISTS

Experienced or inexperienced
Highest wages paid and steady work guaranteed.

HALPER & FRIEDMAN
Mansion House Building

AGAINST SUNDAY BALL PLAYING

P. N. Chase Opposes Fate of Germany as Result of Violating God's Laws—Says German Immigrants Have Made Holiday of Sabbath.

Mr. Editor:—I notice in your issue of last evening, that the question of Sunday baseball will be discussed by the city fathers tonight, and probably decided. May I have a little space in your valuable paper to say a word in general, and especially to those who are to decide this matter.

What to me is the most important point, I have not noticed in any of the discussions.

The highest court in the universe decided this question ages ago when God spoke from the top of Sinai, and also with it on the table of stone, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." It might be well to read the entire commandment.

The One who formed this world, and created man, had so formed him that one seventh of the time was needed for rest. It has been demonstrated over and over again, that a man will do more and better work in a year by working six days per week, than by working seven.

Physically we need one day for rest, morally and spiritually we need one for worship.

The thought that the day would ever come when men should deliberately sit down to legislate whatever God's law should be kept or not, is almost unthinkable to those who were taught that one day of the seven belonged to God.

If a man who has seven dollars, gives six of them to another, it is a pretty mean man who will steal the other dollar from him.

God says to man, "Here are six days—Take them. In them do all thy work—The seventh is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God." It is not your day at all—it is mine—Give your body rest, give mind and soul reflection and worship.

We might just as well vote as to whether we shall blot out the law which says, "Thou Shalt Not Steal," and "Thou Shalt Not Kill." One is no more God's law than the other.

In the olden time God commanded that a man be put to death for working on the Sabbath, and this plea for work on the Sabbath, could be urged with ten times the force than the plea for baseball can. And we cannot break God's laws with impunity—either men or nations.

See Germany, prostrate in the dust—an outlaw among nations—we do not need to look for the cause. Sabbath desecration and beer drink have brought her low.

And that is one of the things Germany has done to destroy us as a nation. The great wrongs which have come to us from Germany and neighboring nations, making our Holy Day, a holiday until we have forgotten the teachings of our fathers and the very teachings of God himself.

Must this fair Colonial City which passed through its baptism of fire in 1777, and rose Phoenix-like from its ashes—with the First Dutch Church which celebrated its two hundred and fiftieth anniversary several years ago, and the score and more of other churches, Protestant and Catholic—must this city lose its good name and proclaim to the world that she has forgotten God?

Hear what the Lord saith—"If thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and shall call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable; and shalt honor Him not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words; then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father."

P. N. CHASE.

NOT THE SAME HENRY.

St. Stephen's College Trustees Claim Cars Were Switched.

An action brought by the trustees of St. Stephen's College at Annandale against the James Millard and Sons Company of Kingston, for $1,000 for damages alleged to have been sustained by the substitution of another "Henry Ford" in place of the one they had left at that garage to be repaired came before Justice Morrissey on Saturday. The Poughkeepsie Star, after hearing some of the argument Justice Morrissey asked the attorneys to submit briefs, which they agreed to do.

The complaint alleges that a "Henry Ford" was left at the garage, by a Mrs. Hopkins of Brooklyn, to be delivered to the trustees of St. Stephen's College but they further allege the car left there for them was substituted for another and when they called there for the car they received one far inferior to the one they had left.

The defense claims to have delivered the same car that was left there and to substantiate this produces the engine number of the car known as a "Henry Ford" and show that it is one and the same.

H. N. Frederick is the attorney for the Millard Company and he had an order signed directing the plaintiff to submit a bill of particulars. Samuel B. Rittenman, the attorney for the college, did not put in his appearance.

BUSINESS CERTIFICATES

Include Those of Ernest A. Kelley and John W. Brink.

Ernest A. Kelley of 101 West Chestnut street has filed a certificate in the county clerk's office in which he sets forth that he intends to operate a baggage and express business under the name of the Archie Winters Express Company.

A certificate has also been filed by John W. Brink of 27 Portland street, Sagerties, and William M. Frederick of 154 Washington street, Sagerties, in which they will do business at 214 Main street, Sagerties, under the name of the Hudson Valley Realty Company.

Exhibition of Interpretative, Aesthetic and Pantomime Dances

UNDER DIRECTION OF MISS DELTA BOICE

St. Mary's Hall, Wednesday, June 4th at 8:15

BENEFIT OF GIRL SCOUTS

ADMISSION 25 CENTS.

FOUNDED 1871.

TELEPHONE 1500.

VAN WAGENEN'S

FIRST IN FASHION—VALUES—SERVICE

Graduation Day Soon Here—

Offering Fine Values in Young Graduates' Needs

More attention will be given this year to the needs of young graduates for the reason that in many homes returning soldier boys will join in the festivities, and the occasion will be one to strengthen the family circle.

We have made special preparations for Graduation Day needs, and the Store has never been so splendidly equipped and ready to meet the requirements of the graduates. The success of this eventful period in the young graduate's life is more certainly assured by being appropriately dressed, as correct apparel lends greater self possession to the graduate. From the many things which are needed, we mention a few here which we have ready for immediate inspection:

—Dresses —Hosiery —Gloves —Fans
—Capes —Underwear —Jewelry
—Gowns —Hats —Ribbons —Gifts

—In fact everything for the June Graduate

Dry Goods—Apparel—Home Furnishings

Corned Beef and Salmon

By DORA MOLLAN

(Copyright, 1919, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Corned beef and cabbage, that homely New England odor, permeated the corridors of a downtown apartment house one springlike morning in December. On a run up the fourth flight of stairs, out of breath from the long climb, came Judy Waite with arms full of packages from the corner grocery. She followed the permeating fragrance straight to its lair, a tiny kitchenette, dumped her load on the table, and then fairly fled to the kettle simmering on the gas plate. All was well.

Next the packages on the table claimed attention. A can of salmon, head of lettuce, salad dressing, chocolate cream, everything that her Bob most liked was to be ready for him that day. For Judy had kissed the narrow cold hand on the second finger of her hand, her big soldier husband was to be mustered out of the service that morning at a nearby camp; and he would be home for dinner. Over a year had passed since the heart-rending separation which took place two days after their marriage. Such brave, uncomplaining letters as he had written, telling only of the height and of things. Now she listened at side mantle his knock might sound on the door.

Would he see the little apartment she had chosen? Would the music she had planned call him? Of course they would. But now there was work to be done. "Let's see," she called out, "corned beef and cabbage for dinner, with apple pie and cheese for dessert; for supper, salmon salad, hot rolls, preserved peaches and the salad."

Hurrying steps came down the corridor brought a "Red Light" to Judy's eyes, and when a knock sounded on the door she was there, ready to open given the lie. For the first course of their first meal he kissed her. "That will always be our first course," he said. Then bravely he tackled the bull beef. Oh how he had learned to hate it! But Bobbie's training in enduring disagreeable things unconsciously now stood him in good stead. He praised the thoughtfulness and the cookery of his young wife.

After they had washed and dried the dishes together and Judy had listened to the story of his experiences over there, the girl-wife put on her new coat and hat. Bobby admired them—and her in them—and they started out for a walk. "For," said Judy, "we must get a good appetite for supper, because I have planned something else that you like."

"Lordy!" thought Bob. "What else did I tell her I liked? But he'd also told her to himself—yes, even if it were canned salmon!"

Supper time came; and with it—salmon. The words of his hunkie, Jim, the wag of the company, ran in his mind: "I loathe, hate, abominate, execrate, detest and abjure canned salmon."

"Amor, forever and ever!" the company had announced in chorus. How Jim would chuckle at the joke on him! Why had he ever told Judy he liked the stuff?

Bobby hadn't been cited for bravery for nothing; so he gulped down the detestable stuff and thought he was setting away with it. But Judy, with a woman's intuition, felt that something was wrong. "He eats like a child taking candy off," she thought to herself, "anything her husband surreptitiously. 'Won't you have some more?' she asked sweetly."

"No, dear! I don't seem to be as hungry as I thought," Bobby replied. However, it did not escape Judy that the table was laden with a relish. Already a goodly portion across her husband's plate. Bob was not going to like her cooking. A big tear came to the corner of one eye and rolled slowly down her cheek.

"Come on, girl, let's get the dishes out of the way and go to bed. Good night!" Judy said. "This boy has been in an hour of goodness!" Bob hadn't noticed the tear. Judy was glad of that and determined to throw off the momentary depression, for nothing must mar the happiness of her soldier's first day at home.

welcome the soldiers home to be held the next day. Bob sprang up with alacrity, for the fact that he was hungry was suddenly borne in upon him.

"Golly!" he exclaimed for the third time that day. "a whole tablecloth and good things to eat sure do look good to me."

They sat down. Thin slices of tender corned beef reposed on a platter, flanked on the right by—salmon, nestled in a bed of pale green lettuce!

Judy caught the involuntary expression of repugnance that flashed across her husband's face before a hastily summoned smile could dispel it. "I know it's the same thing over again," she said in a pleading voice. "But, Bob, you know I really haven't had time to stock up yet; and anyway, we have to be economical for a while till you get your old job back."

But this time the soldier training was again brought into play, and the corned beef and salmon were once more bravely tackled. But, perhaps because Judy loved her husband so, the power was given to her to read him like a book. She was sure he was choking the food down just to please her, and again a tear appeared. This time Bobby saw it.

"What's wrong, dear?" he asked contritely, suspecting the cause.

"You don't like my cooking," sobbed the girl, openly crying now.

Of course there was nothing for Bob to do but to hurry around the table and take the little wife in his arms.

"You know I couldn't cook when you married me," she choked, "and I haven't had the chance to learn yet—but I will."

The walls of the little room echoed with Bob's laughter. Indignant, Judy tried to pull away, but his strong arms held her close. Then he told her of "that awful ten days in the Argentine forest when canned salmon and corned salmon, etc." had been the regiment's steady diet, three meals a day—and described the men's feeling toward it. Then how, for more than two weeks, they had subsisted entirely on issued corned beef, and how their thanksgiving dinner had consisted of cabbage as the pièce de résistance.

"Don't think for a minute that we were away ahead of our supplies and it was unavoidable; nobody's fault. But, oh! Corned beef and salmon!" Judy was laughing through her tears now, and their first day ended happily. But there has been neither corned beef nor salmon in their little apartment since.

LONGED FOR NATIVE LAND

"Good Old United States" Would Satisfy This Exile for the Rest of His Life.

An amusing story that Mr. E. E. Southern tells in a recent number of Scribner's Magazine is apropos of the yearning for his own land so characteristic of many an American traveler and soldier; but it also reflects pointedly on a less-pleasant trait, of which too many of our fellow countrymen have been guilty.

I stood in the domain, or custom-house, on the border between France and Switzerland, says Mr. Southern. A portly and prosperous-looking American paced to and fro impatiently as his wife and three grown-up daughters fussed and fumed over a number of trunks full of clothing. My friend and I stood patiently awaiting the investigation of our small belongings. The portly man curled about us twice or thrice with inquisitive eyes. At last he approached.

"American?" said he.

"Yes, sir," said I.

"Ha!" said he. "I thought so," and again he went to his women and regarded them with disfavor. Then he paced the floor again. Once more he approached us.

"Holiday?"

"Yes," I replied. "We're on a holiday."

"Ha!" said the restless one, and his glance wandered to his four women with no love therein.

"How much longer have you?" said he.

"I have about two weeks more," said I.

"I wish I had! I've got eight," said the exile.

What to him were the everlasting hills, the storied cities, the palaces, lakes, the sacred fane, the legends, the immortal halls? "Give me Pittsburgh!" I can hear him cry. "Little old Louisville is good enough for me!" And who shall mock his longing?

Tip to Authors.

A faithful aspirant applied to a successful author for advice as to how to succeed in literature. "You need indomitable perseverance, a typewriter and a mousetrap," was the reply. "Do you mean I had better take in washing?" asked the aspirant. "Wonderful!" You need the mousetrap to take the vermin out of your manuscript. Mangle them well, and then, unless the editors have burned them with chlorine ash you can send them back to the printer.

Optimistic Thought.

Any fool knows how to read, but it is the privilege of a wise man to know how and when to submit.

DANCERS NETTED $262 FOR S. A.

Miss Boice Makes Public Financial Statement Of Benefit Dancing Exhibition At Opera House.

As a result of the charming exhibition of aesthetic dancing given by Miss Delta Boice and pupils at the Opera House last week, for the benefit of the Salvation Army, that organization is in receipt of the following letter with enclosed check for $262.

61 Albany Avenue, Kingston N. Y., June 2nd, 1919. Salvation Army, Local Chapter, Captain Young, North Front St., City.

Dear Sir: With much pleasure, I, in behalf of my pupils, present to the Salvation Army, this sum of two-hundred and sixty-two dollars. ($262), the net proceeds of the entertainment given at the Opera House May 23rd. Please find check enclosed.

With kindest wishes, I am, respectfully yours, (Signed) DELTA RUTH BOICE.

Miss Boice has asked The Freeman to make public a statement of receipts and expenses of the entertainment, as follows:

Entertainment given May 23rd, 1919, for the benefit of the Salvation Army.

Total gross receipts.....$365.50
Expenses.....
Rent of Opera House.....100.00
Muller's Orchestra for music and orchestration.....77.50
Miscellaneous expenses, including printing, help, orchestration from New York, make-up, expressage, etc.....40.00

Total expenses.....$243.50
Balance, check to Salvation Army.....$262.00

ST. JOHN'S NOTES.

Prohibition To Be Discussed At Public Forum.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a special and very important meeting of the Parish Aid Society, held in the parish house at 2 o'clock.

On Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a special meeting of the Junior Auxiliary members held at the rectory.

The vestry of St. John's Church will hold its regular meeting at the rectory at 8 o'clock.

The Boys' Club will meet at the parish house on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

The second session of the Public Forum will be held at the parish house on Sunday evening next, June 7th, at 8:30 o'clock, following the regular evening service. In the church, the topic to be considered will be "National-wide Prohibition. Is it Feasible and Desirable?" All speakers will present both sides of the question, and the public is invited to be present.

MANSION HOUSE NOW A FACTORY

Halper & Friedman today opened their shirt waist factory in the Mansion House, removing from No. 8 West Union street, where they have been located since 1916. The second floor of the Mansion House has been entirely remodeled and renovated for factory purposes, and affords the employees a modern and sanitary plant in which to work.

The Mansion House is owned by the Klapper Building Company of Brooklyn. H. Leventhal of Wall street is the agent for the owner, and it was through him that negotiations for the lease of the building for factory purposes was carried on. The first floor is used as a garage, known as the Mansion House Garage.

Mr. Friedman said that the welfare of his employees will be of first importance in the new factory.

New York Produce Market.

Wheat—Unchanged. No. 2 red, 2.37 1/2.

Corn—Firm. No. 2 yellow new, 1.95 1/2; No. 3 yellow new, 1.94 1/2.

Oats—Firm. Fancy white, 50¢; 51 1/2; ordinary clipped, 79¢ 80.

Barley—Firm. No. 2 western, 1.44 1/2; c. i. f. New York, 1.44 1/2.

Barley—Firm. Maltine, 1.34; c. i. f. Buffalo: feeding, 1.25 c. i. f. Buffalo.

Hay—Quiet. No. 1, 2.35@2.45; No. 2, 2.25@2.35; clover mixed, 1.95@2.30.

Flour—Quiet. Spring patents, 11.75@12.25; clears, 9.75@10.50; straight, 11.15@11.50.

Potatoes—Firm. White, nearby, 1.20@1.25; Bermuda, 2.50@4.00.

Broccoli—Poultry—Firm. Chickens, 49¢ 50¢; fowls, 23¢ 25¢; turkeys, 35¢ 40¢; ducks, 37¢.

Live Poultry—Unsettled. Chickens, 45¢ 40¢; fowls, 22¢; turkeys, 25¢ 20¢; roasters, 22¢ 25¢; ducks, 30¢ 40¢; geese, springs, 20¢.

Rabbits—Easy. Held and fresh, 52¢ 55¢; creamery, 52¢ 55¢; higher scoring, 55¢ 58¢; state dairy, tube, 45¢ 52¢.

Eggs—Unsettled. Nearby white, fancy, 45¢ 47¢; nearby brown, fancy, 45¢ 47¢; extras, 45¢ 46¢; state, 40¢ 42¢.

Milk—The nominal wholesale price is 3.6¢ per 100 lbs.

St. James' Canon Father Meeting.

The Queen Esther Circle of the St. James M. S. Church will meet tomorrow, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the parlors of the church.

The program will be in charge of Miss Mae Kockober, and it will be what is known as "canton night," with the girls.

Miss Alice Temple is chairman of the hostess committee, which includes Mrs. Clarence Rath, Miss Anna Brown, Miss Edith Case, and Miss Edith Duplin. All members are urged to be present at 7:30 o'clock. The special work and plans will be outlined.

501
 502
 503
 504
 505
 506
 507
 508
 509
 510
 511
 512
 513
 514
 515
 516
 517
 518
 519
 520
 521
 522
 523
 524
 525
 526
 527
 528
 529
 530
 531
 532
 533
 534
 535
 536
 537
 538
 539
 540
 541
 542
 543
 544
 545
 546
 547
 548
 549
 550
 551
 552
 553
 554
 555
 556
 557
 558
 559
 560
 561
 562
 563
 564
 565
 566
 567
 568
 569
 570
 571
 572
 573
 574
 575
 576
 577
 578
 579
 580
 581
 582
 583
 584
 585
 586
 587
 588
 589
 590
 591
 592
 593
 594
 595
 596
 597
 598
 599
 600
 601
 602
 603
 604
 605
 606
 607
 608
 609
 610
 611
 612
 613
 614
 615
 616
 617
 618
 619
 620
 621
 622
 623
 624
 625
 626
 627
 628
 629
 630
 631
 632
 633
 634
 635
 636
 637
 638
 639
 640
 641
 642
 643
 644
 645
 646
 647
 648
 649
 650
 651
 652
 653
 654
 655
 656
 657
 658
 659
 660
 661
 662
 663
 664
 665
 666
 667
 668
 669
 670
 671
 672
 673
 674
 675
 676
 677
 678
 679
 680
 681
 682
 683
 684
 685
 686
 687
 688
 689
 690
 691
 692
 693
 694
 695
 696
 697
 698
 699
 700
 701
 702
 703
 704
 705
 706
 707
 708
 709
 710
 711
 712
 713
 714
 715
 716
 717
 718
 719
 720
 721
 722
 723
 724
 725
 726
 727
 728
 729
 730
 731
 732
 733
 734
 735
 736
 737
 738
 739
 740
 741
 742
 743
 744
 745
 746
 747
 748
 749
 750
 751
 752
 753
 754
 755
 756
 757
 758
 759
 760
 761
 762
 763
 764
 765
 766
 767
 768
 769
 770
 771
 772
 773
 774
 775
 776
 777
 778
 779
 780
 781
 782
 783
 784
 785
 786
 787
 788
 789
 790
 791
 792
 793
 794
 795
 796
 797
 798
 799
 800
 801
 802
 803
 804
 805
 806
 807
 808
 809
 810
 811
 812
 813
 814
 815
 816
 817
 818
 819
 820
 821
 822
 823
 824
 825
 826
 827
 828
 829
 830
 831
 832
 833
 834
 835
 836
 837
 838
 839
 840
 841
 842
 843
 844
 845
 846
 847
 848
 849
 850
 851
 852
 853
 854
 855
 856
 857
 858
 859
 860
 861
 862
 863
 864
 865
 866
 867
 868
 869
 870
 871
 872
 873
 874
 875
 876
 877
 878
 879
 880
 881
 882
 883
 884
 885
 886
 887
 888
 889
 890
 891
 892
 893
 894
 895
 896
 897
 898
 899
 900
 901
 902
 903
 904
 905
 906
 907
 908
 909
 910
 911
 912
 913
 914
 915
 916
 917
 918
 919
 920
 921
 922
 923
 924
 925
 926
 927
 928
 929
 930
 931
 932
 933
 934
 935
 936
 937
 938
 939
 940
 941
 942
 943
 944
 945
 946
 947
 948
 949
 950
 951
 952
 953
 954
 955
 956
 957
 958
 959
 960
 961
 962
 963
 964
 965
 966
 967
 968
 969
 970
 971
 972
 973
 974
 975
 976
 977
 978
 979
 980
 981
 982
 983
 984
 985
 986
 987
 988
 989
 990
 991
 992
 993
 994
 995
 996
 997
 998
 999
 1000
 1001
 1002
 1003
 1004
 1005
 1006
 1007
 1008
 1009
 1010

13

_____

MARBLESTONE'S
"THE HOME OF KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES."
Corner Wall, North Front and Fair Streets.
KINGSTON, N. Y.
Telephone 985-J.

FULLER'S SHIRT FACTORY
Pine Grove Avenue, Kingston, N. Y.

Hardenburgh degree along his last nineteen degrees was two hundred degrees. To the extent of the above there along the centre of said last seventy-one degrees and one hundred to the place of beginning.

Being the same property described above from John A. Hardenburgh
Richard Markle by deed 14th day of November, 1834, recorded in Book
No. 302 at page 432, And to which reference is made for the description set forth.

Dated May 12th, 1919.

ASHLEY W. COOKE
T. R. Van Wageningen, Attorney
111-12 Main Street, Kingston, N. Y.

MR. JONES HAD AN APPOINTMENT WITH ME AT 9.30 HERE. IT IS NOW 10.15 AND HE ISN'T HERE YET TO BUY THAT BILL OF GOODS!

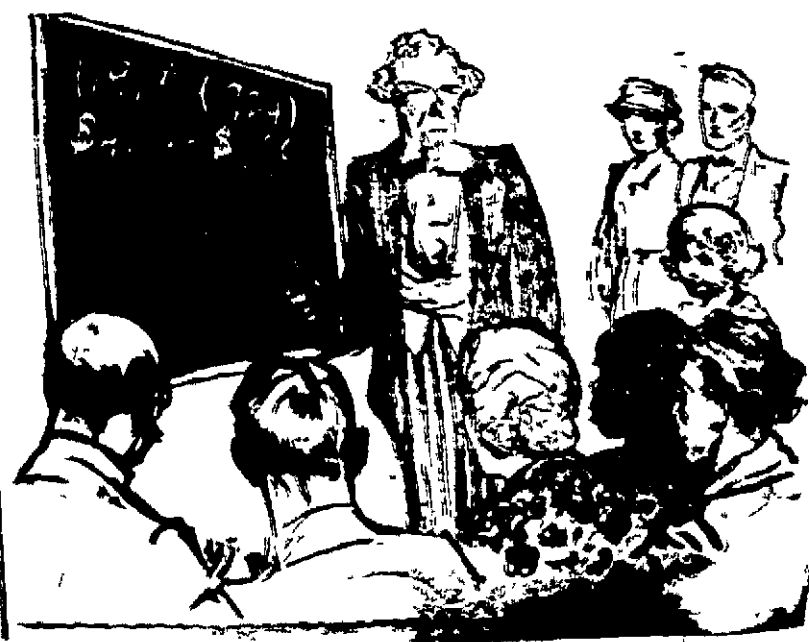

BILL SMITH WAS GOING TO BE HERE 10 O'CLOCK HARD TO STRAIGHTEN OUT THAT BILL AND MAKE A PAYMENT! IT'S NEARLY 11 O'CLOCK NOW AND NO SIGN OF HIM!

I HAD A DAY AT 11.15 HE WASN'T OFF SOME CUSTOMERS 12.40 ALR. DESN'T ANYONE HAVE THE...

[illegible]

Prices: Matinee, 10c-15c: Evenings, 15c-20c
Includes War Tax

FOR GIRL SCOUTS SUMMER CAMP

There are two reasons why St. Mary's Hall should be well filled on Wednesday evening when the pupils of Miss Delta Boice will repeat the remarkably fine entertainment they so recently gave for the Salvation Army.

The first reason is that the proceeds of the exhibition go to the Girl Scouts of the city, an organization in which every person in Kingston is interested. This money will be used to start a summer camp nearby where the girls will have the advantage of the outdoor life and nature study which are the basic principles of the organization.

The second reason has nothing whatever to do with the object of the entertainment, but relates to the entertainment itself.

If you did not see these young people dance two weeks ago you missed one of the most remarkable amateur performances ever given in Kingston.

You have the opportunity now to give yourself an evening of genuine pleasure at a very moderate admission fee. So lovely, so artistic is the production, that you will find it difficult to believe the performers are Kingston children.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, June 3.—Miss Florence Radcliffe, who has been spending some time with Mrs. A. H. Short on Main street, has returned to her home at Hensenville.

W. K. Van Vleet, the Broadway fish and vegetable dealer, made a business trip to Poughkeepsie Monday and returned with a large assortment of fruit.

John Neal, assistant agent of the W. S. R. R. at Rosendale, spent the week end at his home on Salem street.

Robert Clark, Jr., who has been the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Leitch on Hudson street, for the week end, has returned to his home in Newburgh.

Miss Loretta Barley of Jersey City is the guest of Mrs. Lester Furgerson on Green street.

Thomas Tucker, Jr., of Albany spent Sunday at his home on Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. George Proper and daughter, Beatrice, of Broadway were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Krom at Rifton Sunday.

Rehearsal for Children's Day will be held in the chapel of the Methodist Church this evening. Teachers and officers of the school kindly be present.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. S. P. Tinnie on Broadway Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The monthly business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church will be held in the chapel on Thursday afternoon, June 5, at 3 o'clock.

Private Joe S. Silks of Co. M, 37th Division, who is still in a hospital at Baltimore, Md., is enjoying a thirty days' furlough and is visiting his aunt Mrs. C. Diehl, in Sleightsburgh.

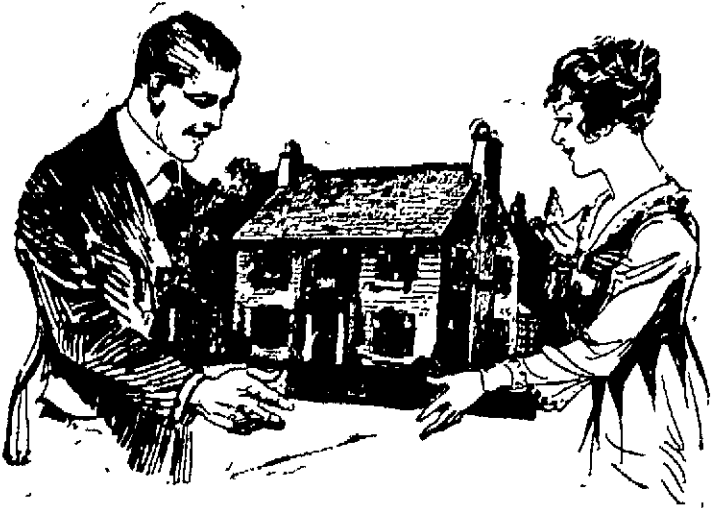

Lester C. Diehl has returned to New York after spending the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Diehl, in Sleightsburgh.

Everyone who can should attend the comic opera, "The Yokohama Maid," to be given in Pythian Hall Friday evening of this week under the auspices of Division No. 1 of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church. This opera was given in Mechanics' Hall, Kingston, Wednesday evening, May 28, and was pronounced by those who knew to be Wednesday and returned Thursday the "hit of the season." The Port Ewen people are to be congratulated for being able to secure this evening's entertainment by this talent from Schoonmakers.

About twenty were present at the M. F. hall Wednesday to hear Messrs. Spiegel and Ogley discourse on farming, vegetable growing and egg production. The speakers knew what they were talking about and their addresses and the discussions were decidedly profitable. It was little short of disgrace to have such a light attendance. It was worth while for the "Big Four" to be present, if it would certainly have been profitable for the smaller farmers to be present also.

The question of preparing for the township fair came up. Rochester, then let us attend the meeting which has had two most successful

Your dream of a home can come true now

A rented house can never be quite a real Home.

You owe a home to your wife, your children and yourself.

Your dream of lowered prices can not come true

The cost of lumber and building materials is now low compared with other things.

It will probably increase with the new construction now under way.

Price advances since 1913, as shown by U. S. Government Reports, are

Farm Products - 136 Per Cent

Food - 99 Per Cent

Clothing - 151 Per Cent

Metals and Metal Products 83 Per Cent

Lumber and Building Materials only 58 Per Cent

nounced by those who knew to be Wednesday and returned Thursday the "hit of the season." The Port Ewen people are to be congratulated for being able to secure this evening's entertainment by this talent from Schoonmakers.

About twenty were present at the M. F. hall Wednesday to hear Messrs. Spiegel and Ogley discourse on farming, vegetable growing and egg production. The speakers knew what they were talking about and their addresses and the discussions were decidedly profitable. It was little short of disgrace to have such a light attendance. It was worth while for the "Big Four" to be present, if it would certainly have been profitable for the smaller farmers to be present also.

The question of preparing for the township fair came up. Rochester, then let us attend the meeting which has had two most successful township fair came up. Rochester, then let us attend the meeting which has had two most successful township fair came up. Rochester, then let us attend the meeting which has had two most successful township fair came up. Rochester, then let us attend the meeting which has had two most successful township fair came up. Rochester, then let us attend the meeting which has had two most successful township fair came up. Rochester, then let us attend the meeting which has had two most successful township fair came up. Rochester, then let us attend the meeting which has had two most successful cently returned to camp from overseas, has received his honorable discharge and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barley one evening last week.

Mrs. Strickland of Brooklyn is visiting her sister, Mrs. DuBois Baird. Wilson Lester of Kingston spent Friday in town.

Mrs. Grace Depuy has returned to her own home after spending some time with Miss Mowrie.

Myron Baker is painting his houses located in the village.

Rural Carrier P. G. Gazlay attended the meeting of the Ulster county carriers at New Paltz Memorial Day.

Mrs. Simon Roosa of Stone Ridge was in town Saturday afternoon. Ralph Markle has joined the ranks of the Ford owners.

The First Silk.

The first silk was made 2000 B. C. by the wife of a Chinese emperor, Aristotle, in 850 B. C. first mention of silk among the Greeks. The manufacture of silk was carried on in Sicily in the twelfth century, later spreading to Italy, Spain and the south of France. It was not manufactured in England before 1604.

Good Way Out of Difficulty.

If you can't tell the truth, do not tell anything. If you do not wish to answer a man's question, tell him that if you did it would embarrass him and yourself, and he'll be glad to let you off.

Opera House TONIGHT

7 AND 9
Matinee, 15c
Evening, 15c and 25c
(Includes Tax)

NEW KEITH VAUDEVILLE

Our New Policy The Talk of The Town!

Come Down Tonight And See The Peppiest Entertainment You Ever Saw
THE DELIGHTFUL ONE ACT MUSICAL FARCE COMEDY

"LET'S GET MARRIED"

A Revelation In Stage Settings, Electrical Effects And Costumes!

Raymond Wiley & Company

An Exceptional Clever Comedy Singing and Talking Offense.

Also

"The Girl In The Frame"

Vaudeville's Greatest Novelty Sensation!

And The Theatre's Supreme Photoplay Productions Offering

DOROTHY GISH in "BOOTS"

Lots of people keep money in their boots but who ever thought that romance, thrills and intrigue could be found in them? See what Dorothy Gish's boots hold.

It's the same funny Dorothy Gish who played in "Hearts of the World," "Barling Jane" and "The Hope Chest."

Opera House Wednesday

Rupert Julian's, The "Fire Fingers"

Adapted from William J. Reid's story of the same name in the Saturday Evening Post—one of that magazine's most successful pieces of fiction

AND KEITH VAUDEVILLE!

Opera House Thursday

Marguerite Clark

—IN—

"Three Men and a Girl"

Also Keith Vaudeville

Auditorium

7 TONIGHT 9

REX BEACH'S "THE CRIMSON GARDENIA"

WITH OWEN MOORE

HEDDA NOVA, EDWIN STEVENS, TULLY MARSHALL, SYDNEY AINSWORTH AND OTHERS.

You know the power of Rex Beach's pictures. His newest production, "The Crimson Gardenia," is a melodrama of speed and mystery and punch. Built on the same high plan of perfection and crowded with even more raw power. That is why Mr. Beach's fictional genius is as evident on the screen as in his books.

10 CENTS

A wonder show for little money.

—ALSO—

MUTT & JEFF — NEWS — COMEDIES —
SPECIAL MUSIC

AUDITORIUM TOMORROW

Marguerite Clark

—IN—

"Three Men and A Girl"

WELCOME HOME NEXT OCTOBER

Tentative Date of October 1, Set For Big Welcome Home Demonstration to Kingston's Soldiers and Sailors.

At a meeting of the welcoming home committee held at the city hall Monday evening a tentative date of Wednesday, October 1, was set on which to tender Kingston's soldiers and sailors a royal welcome home. Present plans call for a big parade starting at 1 o'clock in the afternoon from downtown to Forsyth Park where dancing and refreshments will be served the returning heroes.

It was first contemplated holding celebration on the Fourth of July but it was decided best not to interfere with plans under way for celebrating that day in Kingston, and hold the welcome later when it is hoped all of the boys will have received their discharge from the service.

The committee will meet again August 25 at the city hall. Mayor Campbell is chairman of the committee. The other members present Monday evening were Ralph Cohen, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Major James H. Everett, John L. Mahan, D. G. Atkins, Frank R. Rowley, John Hiltbrand and Secretary F. L. Thornberry of the Y. M. C. A.

INNESS MOURNS KING GAMBRINUS

Although George Inness, Jr., of Cragmoor, Florida and New York, is best known to the world as a landscape painter of supreme merit, he is also a literary man of high rank, among his other achievements in letters being a biography of his father, which has charmed thousands of people. Consequently, The Freeman is proud to be able to print for the first time Mr. Inness' latest production, being a prose poem upon the approaching demise of King Gambrinus.

The King is dead; long live the King.

Gambrinus—dear old friend, you are dying—I hoped that you might live till I had passed beyond, but no, although I'm sixty-five and past, my glass shows ruddy, cheek, red tongue, and though my hair is white, I feel my body young as thirty-five. No youth can stand with me and pay the homage that I can to you my king—and now you're passing out, and I will have to raise the mug on high and drink to old Gambrinus, king and hero, and drown my sorrow in a glass to your bastard son young Bevo.

Self-Conquest.

Patience and gentleness are not easy virtues when one is troubled within and buffeted without by the day's trials and demands. There are many times when the taking of a city might mean less to the individual soldier concerned than the conquest of his own spirit and tongue. There are these days when a cupping or unjust word falls on the spirit like a lighted match on tinder; wherefore we should be the more careful to store no tinder for ourselves, and, too, no lighted matches at our fellows.

ABOUT THE POLICE

Frank Forman, of the Up-to-Date store, is in New York today on business.

Lieutenant Clifford Horstall of No. 11 Lawrence street is in New York city on business.

County Treasurer and Mrs. Philip Schantz motored from their home in Highland to Kingston Monday.

Captain James Conlin and Fireman George Brown of the paid fire department are enjoying their annual vacation.

Mrs. Frank Roosa of Alligerville, who was recently operated upon at the Kingston City Hospital, is making a good recovery.

Miss Anna Larkin, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Rose Larkin, of Meadow street, for the past week, has returned to her home in New York city.

Miss Helen Whitney and Miss Marie Birkel who have been the guests of Miss Whitney's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Streeter, returned to their home in Brooklyn on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kaufman and daughter, Pauline, motored to Margaretville, where they spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting Mr. Kaufman's brother, A. J. Kaufman, their son, Claude just returning from the service.

Peter Cragan of Peekskill, and James Cooper of Newark, N. Y., old time baseball players, being members of the famous Kingston Opera House team, who spent a few days in their old home town, Kingston, have returned.

Rev. Theodore Jorziak, a former rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Delaware avenue, for the past four years in charge of the parish at Florida, Orange county, was in town last night and today, being en route to Rosendale to attend a class reunion there today.

Mrs. Marie Jacobs and mother, Mrs. Davis, who have been spending some time at the home of Mrs. Davis's son, and Mrs. Jacobs's brother, W. Frank Davis, on Crown street, left town last night for California, Mrs. Jacobs's home. On their way to Chino, California, where Mrs. Jacobs resides, they will stop at Sacramento to visit Mrs. Davis's youngest son, "Grandma" Davis has many friends in Ulster county, and in Kingston, whose good wishes go with her to her new home in the land of flowers which she so dearly loves. This was Mrs. Jacobs's first visit to her old home in nine years and she was warmly welcomed by her many friends in the county and city.

Robinson Grueso.

Dufce based his story, "Robinson Grueso" which made his famous, on the experiences of Salfik, who was put ashore on Java. Robinson told at his own request, as he had gathered with the captain of the Cheque Forts, of which he was sailing master. Salfik remained on the island more than four years, and in 1712 there appeared his book, "Crushing Voyage Around the World," and Captain Cook's "Voyage to the South Sea," which Dufce used as his basis.

Not His Unlucky Number.

Richard Wagner was occasionally a child of the number 18. He was born in 1813. Add the numbers 1, 8, 1, 8, and we have again 18. Wagner had 18 letters in his name. He composed 18 great works. He finished "Tannhauser" on April 18, and it was produced on March 18. And Wagner died on February 18.

DEARDEN HEADS STATE B. P. O. E.

Sixty-seven Lodges in the State Represented By Delegates at Big Albany Convention of Elks—Officers Elected.

With the election of state officers and a memorial service that kept the boast "An Elk Never Dies," the state convention of Elks opened in Albany Monday. Every appointed delegate from the sixty-seven lodges in the state reported in the morning.

Dr. John E. Dearden, New York Lodge No. 1, was elected president of the state association.

Others officers elected were: William H. Hyland, Gloversville Lodge, No. 128, first vice-president; James S. Bryan, Rochester Lodge, No. 24, second vice-president.

James E. Hobert, Staten Island Lodge, No. 841, third vice-president; Howard W. Fluhner, Oneonta Lodge No. 1312, fourth vice-president.

Jay Farrier, Oneida Lodge No. 987, treasurer.

Amos W. Foote, Ulster Lodge No. 33, secretary.

The big convention will be brought to a close Wednesday afternoon. It is the biggest and most successful ever held in New York state.

TRINITY ENTERTAINMENT

On Wednesday Includes Doll Drill and Cantata.

Following is the program of entertainment to be given at Trinity M. E. Church parlors on Wednesday evening, June 4th, at 8 o'clock:

Doll Drill—Agnes McKoon, Betty Flemming, Dorothy Carney, Loretta Berger, Juanita Maynard, Elisabeth Terry, Marie Pfommer, Hilda Longendyke, Helen Boeres, Charlotte Landers, Hester Schoonmaker, Edith Dunbar, Alice Hicks and Mildred Dunne.

Duet, "Oh, That We Two Were Maying"..... Smith

Mrs. Roy Wood, Randolph Weyant, Cantata, "A Dream of the Flowers."

Characters: Cora and Bessie—Janet Thompson and Cornelia Terwilliger.

Queen of the Fairies—Laura Bailey.

Fairies—Elisabeth Terry, Betty Flemming, Mildred Dougherty, Anna May Spaulding, Edith Dunbar, Dorothy Spaulding, Agnes McKoon and Charlotte Landers.

Morning Glory—John Thompson.

Bumble Bee—Clarence Hearn.

Flower Queen—Marion Moultrie.

Flowers—Evelyn Maynard, Rose Dougherty, Ruth McKoon, Marie Berger, Gladys Raichle, Margaret Wilmont and Ruth Tongue.

Chorus—Emma Cockehead, Ruth Tongue, Laura Bailey, Gladys Raichle, Adeline Conno, Janet Thompson, Ruth McKoon, Ethel Freer, Catherine Boice, Myrtle Hicks, Margaret Wilmont, Rose Dougherty, Marie Berger, Cornelia Terwilliger, Evelyn Maynard, Ethel Douglas, Catherine Dunbar and Helen Hudler.

Flute Solo—Harold Robinson.

Matter All Settled.

My neighbor's son came into the house the other day, leading a child by the hand. We looked our astonishment, when we saw the little quail stranger, and he immediately made this announcement: "I adopted her; she was all alone and crying, so I 'adopted her and she can have all my toys, 'cepting my bicycle."—Chicago Tribune.

WHY One's Walk Gives Indication of Character

No two people walk alike, and by watching persons as they move about a true estimate of their character can be gained.

The man who walks easily and naturally is the successful man, but the easy but careless walker is easy-going, unaffected, and cares nothing for public opinion or appearances.

People who walk easily but ungracefully are efficient, and possess strength of character, but are lacking in polish. A springing step denotes an alert mind, and a dragging step the apathetic temperament.

A mincing walk shows a mincing nature. It is the walk of the self-satisfied, artificial person who rarely accomplishes anything. A short, quick step, however, denotes businesslike qualities, and an active mind which lacks originality, while a long, quick step means a long head and an ability to "make good." A long slow step, on the other hand, shows a certain slowness of mind.

A rolling gait denotes the uncertain mind of the person ruled by circumstances, while those who walk stiffly and unbendingly are firm to obstinacy.

FORCED TO BECOME MEXICAN

How Frank of the Rio Grande Cased Texan Farmer to Move Into Carranza's Land.

One of the most remarkable cases of kidnapping ever known in the lower border region of Texas has come to the attention of the United States and Mexican authorities.

Jose Cantu, a peaceful land owner and valley farmer, who has lived all his life in Texas, was bodily transferred to Mexico by a recent rise in the Rio Grande. Along with him went 400 acres of his most productive land and many head of live stock.

Under past decisions of the international boundary commission the center of the bed of the Rio Grande is the dividing line between the United States and Mexico. This shifting of the course of the erratic river places Mr. Cantu and much of his property on the Mexico side of the stream and, according to the Mexican authorities, he is now amenable to the laws and taxes of that country. Upon Mr. Cantu's transplanted farm are a number of homes of employees who were also American voters until the river changed its course.

For several years the Rio Grande had been threatening to divert its bed to a new route. With each succeeding flood it cut a deeper channel and it has now practically abandoned its old bed and is flowing through the farm of Mr. Cantu, with more than 400 acres of his cultivated land on the Mexican side.

To further complicate matters the Mexican customs authorities are insisting that Mr. Cantu shall pay duty on his live stock and other property that have found their way to that country by no consent of his.

A. P. Corbin, consulting engineer of the international boundary commission, has found that the stream changed its bed at other places but without involving the transfer of much real estate from one country to the other—Hidalgo (Tex.) Correspondence in New York Sun.

How "Flu" Destroys Game.

Governor Riggs of Alaska says that all the Eskimos round Nome City are dead of the "flu." Why? And is it to be true that even the wild game is to suffer? A dispatch of January 6, from Big River, Saskatchewan, says:

"Hunters returning from the wild regions in northern Saskatchewan report that influenza is decimating big game, and that for some time smaller animals in the district have shown marked symptoms of the disease. Investigation has disclosed diseased lungs among moose that became exhausted quickly when pursued. After investigating conditions around Pelican Lake and Witchikan Lake, in the big game country, Doctor Nichols of Dedham reported that heavy losses among the animals would not be surprising."

How Music Affects Cows.

Photograph music, occasionally supplanted by orchestra music, has become a regular milking-time feature in the dairy barn on a large stock farm in Ohio. Commercial, rather than artistic, reasons have prompted the introduction of this feature. It having been found, after repeated tests, that the yield of the cows is greater when regulated to the tune of some soft, melodious selection. On several occasions an orchestra has played for the cows with the same result, namely, an increase over the previous normal yield of milk.

How Scrap Iron Is Recovered.

Magnetic separators are now being used for the recovery of scrap iron from many kinds of waste material and rubbish. By the aid of such apparatus a great deal of refuse commonly discarded in the neighborhood of steel and iron works can be made to yield a considerable amount of iron—as much as 30 per cent, being obtained from refuse from steel works in some cases. Cupola furnace slag is said to give 5 to 15 per cent, and ordinary workshop rubbish from 2 to 10 per cent.

Why Nickname Is Omitted.

Nonfliers among the officers of the air service are called birds. The bird is an Australian bird whose wings are so rudimentary that it cannot fly. The nickname is not loved by those who bear it.

But, Alas, He Doesn't.

The golden rule is something which we all believe the other fellow should observe.—Boston Transcript.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE By Mary Graham Bonner

THE WHISTLING BOY.

"I am going to tell you a story," said Daddy, "about a whistling boy. It is a true story too."

"Oh, dear," said Nick, "I am afraid I have been whistling too much lately."

"No, Nick," said Daddy, "this isn't a story for you at all. It is just something which really happened and which was quite funny."

"I think it is fine to hear boys whistle. There is no harm in it, but I am sure, Nick, if you went to a party you wouldn't whistle when you were spoken to and answer all questions by whistling."

"If this boy had been able to whistle a good tune it wouldn't have been so bad, but he was only able to whistle three notes, and that isn't very much for a boy who whistled all the time."

"So you see, children, this story has nothing to do with either of you. It really happened and the boy was a very funny boy."

"The boy was asked to a party and he went."

"All the children were playing games—follow the leader, prisoner's base, blind man's buff, hide and go."

"He cried when he was going to bed. And he was much ashamed of himself, for he thought it was a dreadful thing for a boy to cry."

"After a while he went to sleep, and in his sleep the Dream King came to him."

"Boy," said the Dream King, "I am sorry you are shy. And I'm sorry you weren't at the party after the afternoon to the children at the party, for they tried to be nice and friendly with you."

"Now I will try to help you." The boy started to whistle, for he felt very shy, and then suddenly he looked up and the kindly face of the Dream King and felt no longer shy.

"Please help me, Dream King," he said. "I want to have a good time, and I don't like to feel shy, and I am sure, when I am shy and I've always been so, I know it."

"I'll help you," said the Dream King.

He only answered by whistling, and, well, you know how that went, and many other games.

"They asked him if he wanted to play and he put his hands in his pockets and whistled."

"Well, do you want to play?" they asked him, and he only answered by whistling these three notes.

"He was rather shy, but he was also rather rude and he didn't care much about anyone. Of course he didn't have a very good time, but the other children tried to be nice to him."

"They asked him which games he liked best, and still he would only whistle. They asked him if he liked to run races and he only whistled—the same three notes."

"Then they had supper and they asked him if he liked creamed chicken and he whistled."

"They asked him if he liked ice cream and he whistled. And as he whistled the same three notes whenever he was asked anything they didn't know whether he liked ice cream or not."

"They gave him some supper when everything was passed around and he whistled when he took his plates and his cup of cocoa. When he had finished, without saying a word to any other children he got up, put his hands in his pockets once more and whistled."

"The children began to giggle, for they thought he was such a funny boy, and a funny boy he was. He had been rather spoilt and he hadn't really learned to play with other children."

"They felt very sorry for him, but still he wouldn't say a word or do anything. They had asked him to the party because he had just come to the town to live and they thought he must be lonely."

"Well, when he got home he felt very badly, as many shy people do who have been rude because they were so shy they didn't know what to say, and so did the wrong thing."

"He cried when he was going to bed. And he was much ashamed of himself, for he thought it was a dreadful thing for a boy to cry."

"After a while he went to sleep, and in his sleep the Dream King came to him."

"Boy," said the Dream King, "I am sorry you are shy. And I'm sorry you weren't at the party after the afternoon to the children at the party, for they tried to be nice and friendly with you."

"Now I will try to help you." The boy started to whistle, for he felt very shy, and then suddenly he looked up and the kindly face of the Dream King and felt no longer shy.

"Please help me, Dream King," he said. "I want to have a good time, and I don't like to feel shy, and I am sure, when I am shy and I've always been so, I know it."

"I'll help you," said the Dream King.

He only answered by whistling, and, well, you know how that went, and many other games.

"They asked him if he wanted to play and he put his hands in his pockets and whistled."

"Well, do you want to play?" they asked him, and he only answered by whistling these three notes.

"He was rather shy, but he was also rather rude and he didn't care much about anyone. Of course he didn't have a very good time, but the other children tried to be nice to him."

"They asked him which games he liked best, and still he would only whistle. They asked him if he liked to run races and he only whistled—the same three notes."

"Then they had supper and they asked him if he liked creamed chicken and he whistled."

"They asked him if he liked ice cream and he whistled. And as he whistled the same three notes whenever he was asked anything they didn't know whether he liked ice cream or not."

"They gave him some supper when everything was passed around and he whistled when he took his plates and his cup of cocoa. When he had finished, without saying a word to any other children he got up, put his hands in his pockets once more and whistled."

"The children began to giggle, for they thought he was such a funny boy, and a funny boy he was. He had been rather spoilt and he hadn't really learned to play with other children."

"They felt very sorry for him, but still he wouldn't say a word or do anything. They had asked him to the party because he had just come to the town to live and they thought he must be lonely."

"Well, when he got home he felt very badly, as many shy people do who have been rude because they were so shy they didn't know what to say, and so did the wrong thing."

"He cried when he was going to bed. And he was much ashamed of himself, for he thought it was a dreadful thing for a boy to cry."

"After a while he went to sleep, and in his sleep the Dream King came to him."

"Boy," said the Dream King, "I am sorry you are shy. And I'm sorry you weren't at the party after the afternoon to the children at the party, for they tried to be nice and friendly with you."

"Now I will try to help you." The boy started to whistle, for he felt very shy, and then suddenly he looked up and the kindly face of the Dream King and felt no longer shy.

"Please help me, Dream King," he said. "I want to have a good time, and I don't like to feel shy, and I am sure, when I am shy and I've always been so, I know it."

"I'll help you," said the Dream King.

He only answered by whistling, and, well, you know how that went, and many other games.

"They asked him if he wanted to play and he put his hands in his pockets and whistled."

"Well, do you want to play?" they asked him, and he only answered by whistling these three notes.

"He was rather shy, but he was also rather rude and he didn't care much about anyone. Of course he didn't have a very good time, but the other children tried to be nice to him."

"They asked him which games he liked best, and still he would only whistle. They asked him if he liked to run races and he only whistled—the same three notes."

"Then they had supper and they asked him if he liked creamed chicken and he whistled."

"They asked him if he liked ice cream and he whistled. And as he whistled the same three notes whenever he was asked anything they didn't know whether he liked ice cream or not."

"They gave him some supper when everything was passed around and he whistled when he took his plates and his cup of cocoa. When he had finished, without saying a word to any other children he got up, put his hands in his pockets once more and whistled."

"The children began to giggle, for they thought he was such a funny boy, and a funny boy he was. He had been rather spoilt and he hadn't really learned to play with other children."

"They felt very sorry for him, but still he wouldn't say a word or do anything. They had asked him to the party because he had just come to the town to live and they thought he must be lonely."

"Well, when he got home he felt very badly, as many shy people do who have been rude because they were so shy they didn't know what to say, and so did the wrong thing."

"He cried when he was going to bed. And he was much ashamed of himself, for he thought it was a dreadful thing for a boy to cry."

"After a while he went to sleep, and in his sleep the Dream King came to him."

"Boy," said the Dream King, "I am sorry you are shy. And I'm sorry you weren't at the party after the afternoon to the children at the party, for they tried to be nice and friendly with you."

"Now I will try to help you." The boy started to whistle, for he felt very shy, and then suddenly he looked up and the kindly face of the Dream King and felt no longer shy.

"Please help me, Dream King," he said. "I want to have a good time, and I don't like to feel shy, and I am sure, when I am shy and I've always been so, I know it."

"I'll help you," said the Dream King.

He only answered by whistling, and, well, you know how that went, and many other games.

"They asked him if he wanted to play and he put his hands in his pockets and whistled."

"Well, do you want to play?" they asked him, and he only answered by whistling these three notes.

"He was rather shy, but he was also rather rude and he didn't care much about anyone. Of course he didn't have a very good time, but the other children tried to be nice to him."

"They asked him which games he liked best, and still he would only whistle. They asked him if he liked to run races and he only whistled—the same three notes."

"Then they had supper and they asked him if he liked creamed chicken and he whistled."

"They asked him if he liked ice cream and he whistled. And as he whistled the same three notes whenever he was asked anything they didn't know whether he liked ice cream or not."

"They gave him some supper when everything was passed around and he whistled when he took his plates and his cup of cocoa. When he had finished, without saying a word to any other children he got up, put his hands in his pockets once more and whistled."

"The children began to giggle, for they thought he was such a funny boy, and a funny boy he was. He had been rather spoilt and he hadn't really learned to play with other children."

"They felt very sorry for him, but still he wouldn't say a word or do anything. They had asked him to the party because he had just come to the town to live and they thought he must be lonely."

"Well, when he got home he felt very badly, as many shy people do who have been rude because they were so shy they didn't know what to say, and so did the wrong thing."

"He cried when he was going to bed. And he was much ashamed of himself, for he thought it was a dreadful thing for a boy to cry."

"After a while he went to sleep, and in his sleep the Dream King came to him."

"Boy," said the Dream King, "I am sorry you are shy. And I'm sorry you weren't at the party after the afternoon to the children at the party, for they tried to be nice and friendly with you."

"Now I will try to help you." The boy started to whistle, for he felt very shy, and then suddenly he looked up and the kindly face of the Dream King and felt no longer shy.

"Please help me, Dream King," he said. "I want to have a good time, and I don't like to feel shy, and I am sure, when I am shy and I've always been so, I know it."

"I'll help you," said the Dream King.

He only answered by whistling, and, well, you know how that went, and many other games.

"They asked him if he wanted to play and he put his hands in his pockets and whistled."

"Well, do you want to play?" they asked him, and he only answered by whistling these three notes.

"He was rather shy, but he was also rather rude and he didn't care much about anyone. Of course he didn't have a very good time, but the other children tried to be nice to him."

"They asked him which games he liked best, and still he would only whistle. They asked him if he liked to run races and he only whistled—the same three notes."

"Then they had supper and they asked him if he liked creamed chicken and he whistled."

"They asked him if he liked ice cream and he whistled. And as he whistled the same three notes whenever he was asked anything they didn't know whether he liked ice cream or not."

"They gave him some supper when everything was passed around and he whistled when he took his plates and his cup of cocoa. When he had finished, without saying a word to any other children he got up, put his hands in his pockets once more and whistled."

"The children began to giggle, for they thought he was such a funny boy, and a funny boy he was. He had been rather spoilt and he hadn't really learned to play with other children."

"They felt very sorry for him, but still he wouldn't say a word or do anything. They had asked him to the party because he had just come to the town to live and they thought he must be lonely."

SURROGATE HEARS BARMANN DISPUTE

Request of Children That Accounts of Trustees of Brewer's Estate be Examined by Referee Denied by Surrogate Gill, Who Will Hold Hearings June 23 and 24.

In surrogate's court the matter of the judicial settlement of the accounts of Susan Barmann and Peter J. Barmann, as trustees of the Peter Barmann estate, came up this morning, and objection were filed by Parsons & McClung of Albany, attorneys for Catherine Dixon, Bathurst Barmann, Susan Sweeney, Lillian Barmann, Charles Barmann, children of Peter Barmann, deceased, who contest the account of proceedings. Rosemary Dixon, who appeared for the contestants, asked that a referee be appointed to hear the objections and pass on the accounts. Brinley & Canfield objected to the naming of a referee and Surrogate Gill, after hearing counsel, denied the request for a referee, and decided to hear all the parties and pass on the accounts himself, to hold hearings on June 23 and 24, when he will allow the parties to go into all the details.

The contestants object that the trustees have not stated in the account of proceedings filed all the receipts with which they are chargeable, or which have come into their possession during the period covered by said account; that the trustees have not set forth the disbursements made by them during the period covered by said account; and that the trustees have failed to state, and have made disbursements set forth which are unauthorized and illegal, that they have failed to separately state and set forth the items of receipts and disbursements in said accounts covering the period from Sept. 3, 1917 to December 31, 1918, but have lumped them. That they have not set forth separately in Schedule C items of receipts and disbursements covering the period but have lumped receipts and disbursements by months, that they have failed to set forth various items of assets of the estate, failed to correctly set forth accounts with which are chargeable or to which they are entitled to credit; that the trustees have failed to account as contestants allege on information and belief, for all the moneys, properties and assets of trust estate coming into their possession as such. The contestants object to the account generally and pray that the account of proceedings as filed, be not judicially settled, and that they be permitted to examine said account and schedules as filed, either before the court, or a referee appointed by the court, etc. As before stated Surrogate Gill decided to set June 23 and June 24 and all contestants and all parties to be heard.

Chicago Grain Market.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Chicago, June 3.—Corn closed 1/2 higher. Oats 1/4 to 1/2 higher.

Cash Grain.

Corn, July, 1.71 Sept., 1.61 1/2.

Oats, July, 68 1/2 Sept., 65 1/2.

Cash Grain.

Corn No. 2 mixed 1.67, 2 white 1.76 1/2, 2 yellow 1.76 1/2, 1.75 1/2 mixed 1.78 1/2, 1.76 1/2, 1.75 1/2, 1.74 1/2, 3 yellow 1.75 1/2, 1.77, 4 mixed 1.74 1/2, 5 white 1.75 1/2, 4 yellow 1.75 1/2, 1.76.

Oats No. 2 mixed 68 1/2, 2 white 70 1/2, 3 white 68 1/2, 69 1/2, 1 white 68 1/2, 68 1/2, standards 69 1/2, 70 1/2.

Timothy 9.00 12.00.

DIED.

ALLIGER—In this city, Monday, June 2, 1919, Jennie Eva Randall, wife of Hasbrother Alliger.

Private funeral from her late residence, 15 Albany street, Thursday at 3 p. m. Friends wishing to view the remains may do so between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock Thursday morning. Interment in Montrose cemetery.

GEORHAN—At the Kingston City Hospital on Monday, June 2, 1919, Edgel Georhan.

Funeral will be held from the Undertaking Parlor of J. M. Murphy, 174 Broadway on Wednesday morning at 9:30 and from St. Mary's Church at 9:00 o'clock where a Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Telephone Connections New York Office 14 West 27th St.

L. H. McCUTCHEON, Funeral Director, Embalmer, 44 Prince St., Kingston, N. Y.

Interments Arranged for in all Cemeteries

GROGAN & SCHERER, FUNERAL DIRECTORS, 32 Clinton Ave., KINGSTON, N. Y.

WACHMEYER'S, Undertaking and Embalming Establishment, 142 Broadway, Office Call 81-F-1, Residence Call 494-W, Kingston, N. Y.

NOTICE TO REDEEMERS. In pursuance of an order of Hon. Justice J. Gill, in and to the effect that notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against the estate of the late William C. Barmann, deceased, to present the same to the undersigned at his office, at No. 142 Broadway, in the city of Kingston, N. Y., on or before the 10th day of June 1919.

Witness my hand and seal this 3rd day of June 1919.

JOHN H. GILL, Surrogate.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Newport News, Va., June 3.—The transport "Cassius" arrived here this morning with 1,125 men of the 54th division, Machine Company, and Companies B, C and D of the 52nd Infantry and Companies A, B, C, D and E of the 4th supply train. They are all from the Northwestern states. The "Cassius" was called on May 22 and landed a floating mine three days out. The mine was blown up by the ship's gun. Most of the voyage was through rough seas.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, June 3.—It is desirable, Secretary Baker today told the military affairs committee, that the high cost of foods should be cut down. He will welcome any suggestion, he added, whereby this could be accomplished by selling to the American public the reserve stocks of foodstuffs held by the war department that had been acquired for the army, but are not now needed by the army.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, June 3.—Strength was shown at the opening of the stock market today, but selling soon caused a reaction. Steel common rose 1/4 to 1/2, and then dropped to 1/4.

Baldwin Locomotive opened up at 106, declined to 104 1/2. Western Petroleum yielded three points to 22 1/2, which was quickly lost. Studebaker declined 1/4 to 12 1/2. Changes in other motor stocks were small. Crucible, after advancing 1 1/2 to 96 1/2, quickly lost its gain.

Weakness prevailed during the morning. Many stocks sustained losses ranging from 3 to 5 points. American Woolen was an exception, rising 4 points to 115 1/2. Steel common declined 1 1/2 to 108 1/2. Crucible Steel dropped from 96 1/2 to 92 1/2. Baldwin Locomotive sold down from 106 to 104 1/2. Industrial Alcohol declined over 5 points to 159. Mexican Petroleum sold down from 201 to 197 1/2. Sinclair Oil held steady, around 66.

Under general liquidation during the afternoon, prices broke rapidly in the prominent issues. Studebaker fell from 123 1/2 to 116 1/2, and Mexican Petroleum dropped to 196. After rising nineteen points to 139, American Woolen yielded to 122 1/2. Steel common rose to 109 1/2, and then broke over 2 points. Baldwin declined to 104 1/2. Central Leather from 105 1/2 reacted to 101 and General Motors fell 1/2 to 220 1/2.

Quotations given by C. H. Haizer & Co., 15 Broad street, New York city, branch office, Warren Building, 260-2 Fair street, Kingston, N. Y.

2:55 P. M. QUOTATIONS

Am. Chalmers 44 1/2

American Sugar 41 1/2

American Beet Sugar 42 1/2

American Locomotive 101 1/2

American Car & Foundry 97 1/2

American Smelting & Ref. Co. 97 1/2

American Tel. & Tel. 70 1/2

Ammonia Copper Mining 10 1/2

Alcolac, Topinka & Santa Fe 10 1/2

Baldwin Loco 104 1/2

Baldwin & Ohio 114 1/2

Brooklyn Rapid Transit 82 1/2

Lothbium Steel B 82 1/2

Canadian Pacific 167 1/2

WINNIPEG STRIKE STILL MENACING

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Winnipeg, Man., June 3.—Following minor disturbances in various parts of this city throughout the night, the situation today is, as one city official said, dangerous with possibilities.

Business remains at a standstill. Street railway officials failed to operate street cars as promised yesterday. Following several large demonstrations yesterday, street car company officials announced no effort would be made to operate the cars at present. Late yesterday more than 1,000 strikers marched to the headquarters of the Citizens' committee building, after declaring they were going to clean out the place. Five policemen barred the entrance to the building and the mob after smashing several windows and wrecking two automobiles standing in front of the place, tore the flag down, which was over the door.

PETROGRAD SAID TO HAVE FALLEN

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Christiana, June 3.—Petrograd has been captured by the Estonians and the Finns, according to an unconfirmed report received here today from Varso.

It had previously been reported that the Finns and Estonians had driven the Bolshevik defenders from Petrograd but the report proved premature.

ABOUT THE FOLKS.

Felix Katz, a student at Columbia University, is home for the summer vacation.

Mrs. McGuire of Jersey City, who has been visiting Miss Sara Kennedy and mother on Highland avenue, has returned home.

Mrs. Theresa Smith of High Falls is caring for her uncle George Jensen, who is critically ill, at his home on West O'Reilly street.

Corporal Henry Avnet, of the 51st Pioneers, is at Camp Mills and expects shortly to receive his honorable discharge and return home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. J. Moersdorf, who have been visiting Miss Sara Kennedy on Highland avenue, have returned to their home in Jersey City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rodman were the guests during the week end of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Mason at their summer camp, The Pines, at Lake Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Monfort of Wappingers Falls, spent Decoration Day and the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cortland Smith, No. 3 Rogers street.

John Dermody, employed at the Universal works, had one of his fingers nearly severed while at work Monday. He was attended by Dr. Ross and later taken to his home on East Chester street.

Mrs. Charles W. Nash, vice regent of the D. A. R. of the State of New York, is the guest of Mrs. Philip Elling, ex-regent of Wilkewick Chapter, D. A. R. It is hoped that Mrs. Nash will be able to attend the local chapter meeting on Thursday afternoon.

BLOOMINGTON.

Bloomington, June 3.—No Christmas Endeavor meeting Sunday evening owing to the Sunday school having their Children's Day exercises, which will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody will be welcome.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pansburn entertained Mr. and Mrs. Kane with other friends on Sunday.

Mrs. Elting Clearwater of Kingston visited the cemetery the past week and also spent some time with her son, Hiram Clearwater and family of Creek Locks.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Dession of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been spending a few days at the summer bungalow at Creek Locks.

Mrs. Merritt Relyea, Sr., and Mrs. Frank Relyea and daughter, Miss Alice May, with Thomas McLaughlin, motored to this place on Thursday evening and called on Mrs. Esther Relyea.

Miss Nellie Hornbeck of Kingston came on Thursday to see her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Livingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Don have been entertaining her brother and wife and little daughter for a few days.

Michael Biersdorfer has rented his hotel property to parties from the city and they are running a big boarding house.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Coughner and daughter, Miss Ada, of Poughkeepsie spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Mary Relyea and sister, Florence Relyea.

D. H. Osborn of Moshok Lake visited this place on Sunday on business.

25th Division Arriving.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Newport News, Va., June 3.—The transport "Cassius" arrived here this morning with 1,125 men of the 54th division, Machine Company, and Companies B, C and D of the 52nd Infantry and Companies A, B, C, D and E of the 4th supply train. They are all from the Northwestern states. The "Cassius" was called on May 22 and landed a floating mine three days out. The mine was blown up by the ship's gun. Most of the voyage was through rough seas.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, June 3.—It is desirable, Secretary Baker today told the military affairs committee, that the high cost of foods should be cut down. He will welcome any suggestion, he added, whereby this could be accomplished by selling to the American public the reserve stocks of foodstuffs held by the war department that had been acquired for the army, but are not now needed by the army.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, June 3.—Strength was shown at the opening of the stock market today, but selling soon caused a reaction. Steel common rose 1/4 to 1/2, and then dropped to 1/4.

Baldwin Locomotive opened up at 106, declined to 104 1/2. Western Petroleum yielded three points to 22 1/2, which was quickly lost. Studebaker declined 1/4 to 12 1/2. Changes in other motor stocks were small. Crucible, after advancing 1 1/2 to 96 1/2, quickly lost its gain.

Weakness prevailed during the morning. Many stocks sustained losses ranging from 3 to 5 points. American Woolen was an exception, rising 4 points to 115 1/2. Steel common declined 1 1/2 to 108 1/2. Crucible Steel dropped from 96 1/2 to 92 1/2. Baldwin Locomotive sold down from 106 to 104 1/2. Industrial Alcohol declined over 5 points to 159. Mexican Petroleum sold down from 201 to 197 1/2. Sinclair Oil held steady, around 66.

BAKER WANTS LOWER FOOD COST

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, June 3.—It is desirable, Secretary Baker today told the military affairs committee, that the high cost of foods should be cut down. He will welcome any suggestion, he added, whereby this could be accomplished by selling to the American public the reserve stocks of foodstuffs held by the war department that had been acquired for the army, but are not now needed by the army.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, June 3.—Strength was shown at the opening of the stock market today, but selling soon caused a reaction. Steel common rose 1/4 to 1/2, and then dropped to 1/4.

Baldwin Locomotive opened up at 106, declined to 104 1/2. Western Petroleum yielded three points to 22 1/2, which was quickly lost. Studebaker declined 1/4 to 12 1/2. Changes in other motor stocks were small. Crucible, after advancing 1 1/2 to 96 1/2, quickly lost its gain.

Weakness prevailed during the morning. Many stocks sustained losses ranging from 3 to 5 points. American Woolen was an exception, rising 4 points to 115 1/2. Steel common declined 1 1/2 to 108 1/2. Crucible Steel dropped from 96 1/2 to 92 1/2. Baldwin Locomotive sold down from 106 to 104 1/2. Industrial Alcohol declined over 5 points to 159. Mexican Petroleum sold down from 201 to 197 1/2. Sinclair Oil held steady, around 66.

Under general liquidation during the afternoon, prices broke rapidly in the prominent issues. Studebaker fell from 123 1/2 to 116 1/2, and Mexican Petroleum dropped to 196. After rising nineteen points to 139, American Woolen yielded to 122 1/2. Steel common rose to 109 1/2, and then broke over 2 points. Baldwin declined to 104 1/2. Central Leather from 105 1/2 reacted to 101 and General Motors fell 1/2 to 220 1/2.

Quotations given by C. H. Haizer & Co., 15 Broad street, New York city, branch office, Warren Building, 260-2 Fair street, Kingston, N. Y.

2:55 P. M. QUOTATIONS

Am. Chalmers 44 1/2

American Sugar 41 1/2

American Beet Sugar 42 1/2

American Locomotive 101 1/2

American Car & Foundry 97 1/2

American Smelting & Ref. Co. 97 1/2

American Tel. & Tel. 70 1/2

Ammonia Copper Mining 10 1/2

Alcolac, Topinka & Santa Fe 10 1/2

Baldwin Loco 104 1/2

Baldwin & Ohio 114 1/2

Brooklyn Rapid Transit 82 1/2

Lothbium Steel B 82 1/2

Canadian Pacific 167 1/2

Central Leather 99 1/2

Cerro de Pasco Copper 134 1/2

Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul 115 1/2

Chesapeake & Ohio 67 1/2

Colorado Fuel & Iron 40 1/2

Corn Products 67 1/2

Crucible Steel 91 1/2

Disasters' Securities 78 1/2

Erie 101 1/2

Gen. Nat'l. 98 1/2

Great Northern 107 1/2

Ins. Nickel 107 1/2

International Copper 107 1/2

International Paper 59 1/2

Norfolk & Western 98 1/2

Norfolk Pacific 98 1/2

Marine 115 1/2

Marine 115 1/2

Mexican Petroleum 101 1/2

National Lead 89 1/2

New York Central 101 1/2

N. Y. N. H. & H. 70 1/2

Norfolk & Western 98 1/2

Norfolk Pacific 98 1/2

Pennsylvania Railroad 47 1/2

Pressed steel Car 60 1/2

Pittsburgh Coal 60 1/2

Pittsburgh Steel Sp. 61 1/2

Reading 67 1/2

Rep. Iron & Steel 87 1/2

Southern Railway 100 1/2

Southern Pacific 100 1/2

Studebaker 116 1/2

MASONIC GRAND OFFICERS NAMED

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Syracuse, June 2.—The following appointments are announced for the ensuing year by Judge William S. Farmer, grand master of Masons in New York state:

Grand chaplain—Jeremiah Zimmerman, Syracuse; S. Parker, Cadman, Brooklyn; Bishop William Burt, Buffalo; William R. Watson, Bay Shore; William C. Selleck, Utica; Oscar F. R. Tieder, Garden City; Charles W. Leitzell, Albany; Elias Margolis, New York; Cornelius Woolfka, New York; C. Wallace Petty, New York; William C. Prout, Herkimer and Alton A. Jaynes, Syracuse.

Grand marshal—Willard A. Rill, Syracuse.

Grand standard bearer—Harry H. Farmer, Syracuse.

Grand sword bearers—Joseph Stecki, Plankfort; James E. Campbell, Watertown; William H. Stanley, Queen City, 528, Buffalo; Charles C. Downing, Flushing; Charles B. DeWald, Syracuse, 591, Syracuse; Harry W. Pintel, New York; Leon H. Marcy, East Syracuse and Wallace H. Erksner, Brooklyn.

Grand Stewards—Alfred C. Hopkins, Palmyra; Charles A. Perryman, Brooklyn; William J. Rhinehart, Albany; Joseph Beasley, Brooklyn; Charles J. Reeder, Carthage; Charles B. Provost, New York; George C. Bryant, Occidental, 765, Buffalo, and Charles H. Leorig, New York.

Grand Directors of Ceremonies—James Symington, Astoria; Althui D. White, Rome; Samuel A. Kross, New York; David M. Hewitt, Georgetown; Anthony W. Klein, New York; J. Carl Connell, Baldwinsville; Louis Nathan, Brooklyn; George M. Melby, Genesee Falls, 607, Rochester.

Senior Grand Deacon—John J. Macerone, New York.

Junior Grand Deacon—William H. Cleary, Brooklyn.

Grand Historian—Ossan H. Lang, Mt. Vernon.

Judge Advocate—Harold E. Lippincott, New York.

Grand Lecturer—Horace W. Smith, Byron.

Grand Librarian—Elmer B. Silver, New York.

Grand Pursuivant—Frederick H. Renner, New York.

Grand Tiler—Joseph McElroy, New York.

District deputies were also appointed.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church will hold the regular monthly meeting on Thursday.

An aeroplane bound for the Elks' convention at Albany passed over Kingston at noon today. This afternoon it was slated to do air stunts for the "Hello Bells."

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Deeds Recently Recorded With the County Clerk.

John Heinzman and wife of Ellenville to Fred Van Keuren of the same place, a parcel of land in the town of Wawarsing. Consideration, $150.

James F. Dwyer and others of this city to Katherine J. Dman of Newburgh, a parcel of land in the town of Ulster. Consideration, $1.

SAINT JOSEN.

Saint Josen, June 3.—Stephen D. Sahler from Lake Katrine spent Sunday with friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Custer Riley attended church in Accord on Sunday evening.

Custar C. Riley made a trip to Kerhonkson on Monday.

Custar C. Riley and family attended the play at Accord on Saturday evening.

Miss Alice Coddington attended church on Sunday evening.

Henry Lawrence took Warren Lawrence and family for an auto ride Sunday.

Russel Lawrence and brother, Moses were in Kerhonkson on Saturday.

Ross Coddington spent Sunday with his parents in this place.

Mrs. Arthur D. Coddington spent Tuesday with Mrs. Frank Coddington.

